

Small Farm Near Town

80 acres west of town, 12 acres in cultivation about 20 all told can be cultivated. Balance in wood and pasture. Good house and barn and spring. Dandy place for chickens. Few cows. Price$1700

20 acres every foot good ground, good, new, modern bungalow, splendid new barn, fencing all new, near school, in crop. Here is a real home. The price is $3500 and it is worth more money.

I desire to get into immediate touch with a buyer who desires a real home, modern in every respect. Owner is leaving city and will make price and terms very attractive.

Geo. H. Currey

Next to Observer
Office
Phone Black 2001

HE WHO MOVES
REAL ESTATE

1708 1-2 Sixth St.
La Grande,
Oregon

Next to Observer Office

Imbler News Notes

Registration Day Celebrated As Gala Day—About 45 Registered—Band Plays Patriotic Airs and Enlivens Occasion—Notes and Personals.

Imbler, June 7.—(Special)—Registration day was accepted at Imbler in the nature of a gala day in an endeavor to lighten the seriousness of the occasion. A few of the conscripts who registered early formed a police parade and escorted all of the dignitaries that could be found to the polling place; accompanied with the beating of the drum, and the music of such instruments as could be configured, headed by the flag. About forty-five were registered for this precinct including the boys who have signed up for the La Grande hospital corps.

Later in the day the band boys tuned up their horns and played some patriotic airs which helped to enliven the occasion.

Bruce Cox, of the La Grande Grocery Co., was in Imbler Thursday. Eugene Blanchard has purchased the pool hall formerly owned by L. S. Dunlap.

Mrs. Lawrence Spencer, of Summerville, was in Imbler Thursday doing some shopping.

A. T. Arthur, contractor and architect of McMinnville, was in Imbler

Thursday on business.

Mrs. Dears, of Portland, was in Imbler Thursday and left Friday.

Geo. Childers and family left Thursday evening for Woodland, Calif., to make their future home, having sold all their interests in this valley. Their furniture was shipped by freight Thursday evening.

Mr. Nickolds, of the Oregon Grocery Co., was in town Thursday.

Doras Childers and Tom Marlin left Thursday for Walla Walla where they expect to get work for some time.

Roy Parker made a trip to points around Walla Walla Monday returning Thursday.

Miss Blanch Combs of Summerville spent the day Friday with friends in Imbler.

C. Gizell, of the Alton Taylo Machine Co., paid Imbler a brief visit Monday.

E. E. Hurley returned Monday morning from Seattle where he has spent the winter. Mr. Hurley said he sure was glad to be home again.

E. G. Kirby and children, of Elgin, were in Imbler Monday.

Mrs. Dennis McCouly came up from Elgin Tuesday for a visit with her son, Oscar Howell.

Dr. C. S. Moore returned Monday from Portland where he went to take examinations for the hospital corps.

D. A. Brownell, of Umatilla, came to our town last week and concluded to make this his future home. We welcome all good people.

Miss Katie Anderson, traveling saleslady for the Cleaveland and Royal Baking Powder Co., was in Imbler Tuesday.

J. H. Helland and Lou Stoope, of Elgin, was in Imbler Sunday billing the town for the Chautauqua that will be held in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, have been in Imbler the past week visiting friends. They will spend the summer at the Wilson farm.

Mrs. E. E. Hurley went to La Grande Tuesday evening.

Mr. S. L. Brooks was in La Grande Tuesday on business.

Several of our young men went to La Grande Saturday evening to enlist in the hospital corps of the U. S. A. Among those who volunteered their services were Lyl Stringham, Lynn Stringham, George Conklin, Vern Berry, L. S. Dunlap, Pat Rollans and Paul Young. Imbler seems to be doing her part when she sends these seven young men to the front. We are justly proud of our young people as their are no better on earth.

Prof. E. B. Conklin, of the O. A. C., were in Imbler Wednesday visiting at the food preparedness campaign. He held a meeting in the bank and gave a fine talk on the necessity of growing more food stuff. He appointed a committee of Mr. and Mrs.

Sherwood Williams, Mrs. E. E. Hurley and Chas. Bingham who will get busy and organize a society of workers in this city.

Imbler and Dry Creek played ball on the Imbler diamond Sunday. The score was 14 to 6 in Imbler's favor.

Mrs. Ed. Combs and Miss Blanch left Monday for Enterprise to visit friends and relatives.

The M. I. A. young people gave an entertainment in the church Sunday evening. The program consisting of singing and music and an address by Bishop Whiting of Mt Gleen. A series of Sunday evening lectures have been arranged for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Cockran, of Portland, was in Imbler Wednesday visiting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Ruckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Blanchard left Monday for Salt Lake City.

(Continued to Page 12)

Has the Rug Made Good?

This is the eleventh and last day of the Rug on the sidewalk. This Rug will be cleaned and placed on display in our store. You are invited to call and see what a real rug will stand... See if we have made good. See if the rug has made good.

This rug has been exposed to all kinds of weather and thousands of people have walked on it. You could not give a rug this hard use in your home in years.

This Rug Was Taken
From Our Regular Stock

CARR FURNITURE CO.

THE UNIVERSAL SCREEN FAVORITE

Mary Pickford

In Her Newest and Most Dramatic Picture

"A ROMANCE OF THE REDWOODS"

Have the Children Come to the Matinee

PRICES
Matinees
Adults	10c
Children	5c
Evenings
Adults	15c
Children	10c

Greater even than the adorable "Gwen" in "A Poor Little Rich Girl" is Mary Pickford's characterization of little Jenny Lawrence, the Little Boston girl who explores the wilds of the West in "A Romance of the Redwoods".

Monday & Tuesday

ARCADE

