Commander of Marines Who Will Go to France

In addition to the expeditionary army under Major General John J. Pershing, Uncle Sam will send to the fighting line in France a contingent of United States marines. The marines are noted fighters and have been called upon frequently to quell uprisings in the West Indies, and they also were among the first at Vera Cruz, Mexico.

COLONEL CHARLES A. DOYEN, U. S. M. C.

For their recent services in Haiti Secretary Daniels authorized the issue of medals of honor to a number of officers and men of the corps.

It is understood that Colonel Charles A. Doyen will head the expedition to France. Colonel Doyen is a native of New Hampshire and was graduated from Annapolis academy in 1883. Since then he has seen much service afloat and ashore, and it is because of his meritorious work wherever he was stationed that he was chosen for the distinguished honor of leading the marines to France.

Smartly Said

It is always easier to grab a good thing than to let go. Be economical, but not in a way to paralyze industry.

The unwritten law is a poor excuse for breaking a written one.

It is not necessary to look so pleasant when answering the telephone if you do not speak in tones of a circus bawls man.

When the dressmaker's bill comes in we learn that a goodly portion of the white man's burden is borne on the back of the wife.

FLEETING TROUBLES.
Quick is the succession of human events. The cares of today are seldom the cares of tomorrow, and when we lie down at night we may safely say to most of our troubles, "Ye have done your worst, and we shall meet no more."—Cowper.

Mother's Doll Story
The Party

Once upon a time all the dolls in the nursery decided to have a party. But upstairs was the nicest place for a party—upstairs in the garret where real folks never came.

Now how do you think the dolls ever got up to the attic?

Why, they rode on the backs of the animal crackers, of course.

"Gee up!" said the paper doll to the cracker elephant. If you have never been to the circus and ridden on the elephant's back you don't know what fun it is to ride there.

"Whon!" cried the nigger doll to the zebra. Just then the zebra kicked up and almost tossed the nigger doll over his head.

Next came the rubber doll astride the wild pig's back, and after that the wax doll followed on a side saddle that the cracker dog had fixed upon the giraffe. Oh, it was a jolly band of dolls that trudged up the dusty attic stairs, you may believe.

They danced and they sang, and while the poor animal crackers were taking a nap they ate up the crumbs of a cracker kitten that had got stepped on while coming up the stairs. Just before the sun arose they all trudged softly back to the nursery and got into their places again.

Boy Scouts to Plant Gardens.
The Boy Scouts of America will try to have 2,000,000 gardens cultivated under their auspices. More than 250,000 scouts and officers are to be mobilized in the food production movement. They not only are to make 2,000,000 gardens, but are going to try to have every one 100 per cent efficient by not allowing a single pea or potato to go to waste.

Sunset.
The clouds that were a snowy pearl Glow pink as long day closes, As though the sun held carnival And pelted them with roses!

Around the House

To prevent olive oil becoming rancid add two lumps of sugar to each quart as soon as opened.

Steel wool and a neutral soap are good for removing discolorations from aluminum. Boiling in clear water to which a spoonful of vinegar has been added is also effective.

A wire egg whip will beat a cake in less time and also make it of finer grain.

Washing dishes in a wooden tub or bowl will spare them the chipping they so often get from a metal pan.

Hot water, ammonia and a little washing powder will clean an oil mop after water and soap have failed.

Old window shades when soaked and boiled clean to take out the dressing make excellent roller and kitchen towels.

Cucumbers are both wholesome and palatable served with French dressing.

When beating eggs use a pinch of salt and they will be much lighter for the cake.

It is said that a gas mantle will give a much brighter light if it is soaked in vinegar and hung up to dry before being used.

A nice way to serve grapefruit is to garnish it with cubes of firm red and yellow jelly.

Little bits of tomato add a delicious flavor to the omelet.

A really good wringer should have a place in every laundry.

Chocolate cake is one of the few cakes which may be made without eggs.

Two Simple Methods of Canning Fresh Meat

Method 1.—Free the meat from the bone and cut it in pieces of such a size that they will go into the jars easily. Pack the raw meat solidly into tested clean glass jars, filling the jars to within three-fourths of an inch from the top. Sprinkle over the top of the meat half a teaspoonful of salt for each pint of meat. Add no water. Celery leaves, onion, pepper or other seasonings may be added if desired. Adjust on the jar a new rubber of good quality. Place the cover on the top of the jar and adjust, but do not fasten, the upper wire clamp, or if a mason jar is used partly screw on the cover. Place the jars on a rack in a tightly covered container, such as a wash boiler or a sap bucket in which there is warm water that reaches to within about an inch from the tops of the jars. Sterilize the meat by cooking it for from four to five hours, beginning to count the time when the water around the jars reaches the boiling point. A steam cooker is particularly convenient for this purpose and a pressure canner reduces the sterilization period, but a wash boiler or a sap bucket answers the purpose satisfactorily.

Before removing the cans from the sterilizer complete the sealing of each jar by adjusting the lower wire of the clamp or by screwing the top tight. Keep the jars in a cool, dark place.

Method 2.—Sear the meat in a hot oven, in hot fat or in boiling water, and steam it or simmer it until it can be torn apart. Pack the meat into the jars, fill the space with stock and add half a teaspoonful of salt to each pint of meat. Sterilize the meat for three hours as in method 1. Unless the meat is first browned it does not have so good a flavor as that of raw meat steamed in the can.—New York State Agricultural College.

Light as Chaff

Paid In Advance.
"Now, lemme see," said the rural justice, figuring on the back of an old envelope, "your bill will come to jest —$47."

"Forty-seven dollars?" echoed Wigglethorpe. "Why, judge, the fine for overspeeding is only $15."

"Ya-as, I know," said the justice. "The thirty-two dollars is fer contempt o' court."

"But I haven't expressed any contempt for this court," protested Wigglethorpe.

"Not yit, ye haven't," grinned the justice, "but ye will, my friend; ye will before ye git a mile out o' town. I've made the fine putty stiff so's t' give ye plenty o' room to move 'round in."

A Warning.
Maid—I'm leaving this day week, ma'am, to work in the munitions factory.

Mistress—Are you? Well, if you drop as many things there as you do here you won't be there long.

Good Construction.
A row of villas in suburbia were going up apace. When they were almost finished the builder and his foreman made a tour of inspection. The former left his assistant in one house and went into the house adjoining.

"Can you hear me?" called the builder, tapping on the dividing wall.

"Yes." "Can you see me?" "No." The builder rejoined the foreman, beaming with satisfaction.

"Now, them's what you can call walls!" he said.

Advice to Young Men

Young men, you are the architects of your own fortunes. Rely upon your own strength of body and soul. Take for your star self reliance, faith, honesty and industry. Inscribe on your banner, "Luck is a fool; pluck is a hero."

Keep at your helm and steer your own ship and remember that the great art of commanding is to take a fair share of the work. Think well of yourself. Strike out. Assume your own position. Put potatoes in your cart over a rough road and small ones go to the bottom. Rise above the envious and jealous. Fire above the mark you intend to hit. Energy, invincible determination, with a right motive, are the levers that move the world.

Don't drink. Don't chew. Don't smoke. Don't swear. Don't deceive. Don't marry until you can support a wife. Be in earnest. Be self reliant. Be generous. Be civil. Read the papers. Advertise your business. Make money and do good with it. Love your God and love your men. Love truth and virtue. Love your country and obey its laws.

If this advice be implicitly followed by the young men of the country the millennium is at hand.—Neah Porter.

Neatness Made Him Senator.
A former member of the United States senate says in the American Magazine:

"The habit of neatness had grown upon me. I know now that it had a great influence on my entire future career. I got so that I couldn't bear the sight of a fly speck. When not waiting on customers I busied myself polishing glasses or scrubbing the counter. I saw to it that everything about the place glistened with its spotless cleanliness. We had big glass domes which we used as covers for cakes. I kept these so bright and shining as to excite comment by traveling men. One of my duties was to prepare the ham sandwiches. I carefully cut away all the fat, and people got to liking my sandwiches better than those served at other stations."

Through this habit of neatness this man won the start in life that ultimately landed him in the United States senate.

THE AIM OF LIFE.

- We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths;
  - In feelings, not in figures on a dial.
  - We should count time by heart throbs. He most lives
  - Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.
  - And he whose heart beats quickest lives the longest;
  - Lives in one hour more than in years do some
  - Whose fat blood sleeps as it slips along their veins.
  - Life is but a means unto an end; that end,
  - Beginning, mean and end to all things—God.
  - The dead have all the glory of the world.
- Phillip James Balloy.

PAT TRIMMED WITH SKIRTING IS LATEST MILLINERY NOVELTY

Common cotton stuffs now appear among the latest novelties shown by the milliners. This freak of fashion is all owing to the craze for matching the hat, bag, parasol and skirt. The illustration shows a so-called "three-piece suit" with a smart vertical and horizontal arrangement of stripes.
