Letters From The Front

DOUGLAS KLINE WRITES TO THE FOLKS AT HOME ABOUT LIFE IN THE NAVY.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kline received the following letter from their son Douglas who recently entered the Navy:

Goat Island, June 7, 1917.
Dear Folks:—I suppose you have gotten the letter and card and the package I have already sent you. I am getting along fine so far, but I do not know how long it will last as I was vaccinated for typhoid fever and smallpox today and when they begin working I suppose I will be laid up for a day or two. There are about 700 more men here and it is so crowded we have to sleep on the floor. I got a complete outfit of clothes, which includes three suits of clothes, two of them white and one blue. I gave away all of my dirty clothes but sent my mackinaw and my suit and shoes home and I suppose they are there by now. Don't talk about the fine California weather as it is colder here now than it is in La Grande. The sun does not show up until about 11 o'clock on account of the fog, and the wind blows quite a bit. The hospital corps is on top of a high hill and we get a fine view of the bay which surrounds us (this island is not in the ocean but in Frisco bay). We see the shops and ferry boats pass and have seen two battleships, a Jap cruiser and the other the "Old Oregon." There is a fine class of men here and only a few rough-necks. We have been working on the rock pile this a. m., regular work with the pick and shovel. This p. m. about 200 rookies, including me, went down and got aforesaid vaccinations. The food they give us here is all good and well cooked. Yesterday we all got brick ice cream made with three colors; Gee, it was good. I suppose I will be on the sick list for a while, as my arms are ready starting to swell like the dickens. If I don't write for a while you will know I am on the sick list. Tell Charlie Mulkey to write to me. I would like to get an Observer once in a while if you will send them. I lost my camera and by the time I had found it, my other stuff had gone so I will ship it later.

I and Vinton Forbes got a tent this afternoon so we can have some place to call home. We will sleep on cots. We only have one blanket and I have to sleep with part of my clothes on. Was my name in the paper when I left? I would like to have a copy of the paper if it was. Please write as often as you can and have Vern write too. If you want, too, you can send me the American Boy as I would like to read it every month. I can't think of any more to write at present but I will write often. Tell all of my friends hello for me and tell Ruby to write to me once in a while. Well, my arm is as stiff as a board so I will close hoping to get a letter from you right away. With love and kisses to all I remain,
Your loving son,
DOUGLAS.
