SMALL PERCENTAGE OF HORSES JUDGED THIS A. M.

Union, June 13.—(Special)—The late arrival of Judge Arnette this morning made it impossible to handle but a small percentage of the horses to be judged. The magnificent display of pure bred stock at the show brings to light the fact with greater emphasis than ever that Union is the meeting place of stockmen. Wallowa, Baker and Union counties being represented in the shorthorn exhibits are leader in cattle displays. The number of sheep and hogs are small but the quality of the stock exhibited is a great revelation of the possibilities in the production of pure bred stock in Union County and vicinity.

The horse parade formed at 12:30 and marched through the principal streets of the city. Music was furnished by the Union and North Powder brass bands. All types of horses exhibited took part in the parade—splendid draft horses and light-boned saddlers and drivers.

The cattle will be paraded before the grand stand this afternoon.

JUDGE MESSICK WILL CONTEST RECALL VOTE

Baker, June 13.—(Special)—Judge Messick yesterday filed notice of contest of the recent recall election and asks for a recount of the votes cast June 4, at which time the recall against Messick carried by a majority of 32 votes and Wm. Doby was elected county judge by a majority of 96 votes.

The notice of contest filed yesterday by Attorneys John L. Rand, Wm. H. Packwood and Charles F. Hyde, representing the contestant, sets forth that there was an erroneous count of the ballots and that the recount will show that the majority vote was against the recall and that Messick received more votes for the office of county judge than his opponent.

The notice asks that the court hold a recount of the vote on June 26. Under the law, Circuit Judge Anderson will set the recount for that or some other date and appoint two tellers to recount the votes in his presence.

FOOD CONSERVATION COMMITTEE MEETS

The Food Conservation committee held its regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last night. This organization is at work to impress upon all who are raising fruit, vegetables, etc., the importance of allowing nothing to go to waste.

A canning club has been organized to inspect and help all who wish to can and dry surplus food. The reason for this being that each family and community prepare enough for its own consumption, so that the entire output of canneries, etc., may be kept available for the rest of the world, which America must help feed.

Mrs. J. E. Foley was elected chairman of this committee. Every one is asked to take an interest in this movement so that none may go hungry.

Best Beds for Camping.

"The bed is the most important requisite to a good camping trip. It may be only a pile of leaves but it must be comfortable." In the June Woman's Home Companion we read that folding canvas cots and chairs are carried. "For bedding get two rubber sheets for top and bottom if possible. The best thing is an imitation-leather top from an automobile. Canvas or duck are good if you cannot get rubber. A double comfort makes a very good mattress. When camping several nights, get a bale of hay or straw. Take such blankets as you are likely to need, and pillows if wanted. For one-night camps, unless there are heavy dews, it is often needless to pitch the tent. The rubber sheets protect and give warmth. Use them to roll the bedding in when packing, and spread on the ground to sit on when you eat."

Nougatine Cream.

1-3 cup sugar, 1-4 cup water, 1-4 pound marshmallows, 1-4 cup almond paste, 1 tablespoon maraschino cordial, 2 egg whites, 1 cup heavy cream, 1-4 cup maraschino cherries, 3 tablespoons chopped pistachio nuts.

Put sugar and water in saucepan, bring to boiling point and let boil until syrup will spin a thread when dropped from tip of spoon. Add marshmallows cut in halves, and almond paste, and when partially melted, using an egg beater, until mixture is smooth. Pour gradually, while beating constantly, on whites of eggs beater stiff, and beat until cold; then add maraschino cordial, heavy cream beater stiff, maraschino cherries cut in pieces, and chopped pistachio nuts.—Woman's Home Companion.

If you really have something to say, less attention will be paid to the grammatical construction of such sentences as you may utter.

THE PERIOD OF GRACE IS NOW OF THE PAST

SLACKERS WILL BE HUNTED DOWN AND GIVEN THE FULL PENALTY OF THE LAW.

Portland, Or., June 13.—(Special)—The period of grace for men of military age who failed for any reason to register on War Census Day is ended.

From now on, every slacker is to be hunted down without mercy. There will be no more leniency. Governor Withycombe has received official instructions from the Provost Marshal General, at Washington, D. C., that the most vigorous enforcement of the penal clause of the law will be required against all who have not registered.

It is announced that the quota of men to be drafted into the military service from each state will be based on previous census estimates, not on the actual registration figures, which in Oregon were slightly lower than the estimate. Inasmuch as the men to be called are chosen by lot, the failure to register of any man who should have done so increases the chances against every other man who did his duty and registered.

For this reason, particularly, and also as a patriotic duty, every one of the 62,840 men who registered in Oregon is asked to help in the drive to round up the shirkers.

Already the sheriffs, police officers and precinct registrars have been directed by the Adjutant General to report all suspicious cases. But now through the press, and in response to official orders from Washington, all men who have registered are asked to aid in this Anti-Slacker campaign.

Of course, there may be a few who can present legitimate excuses for not having registered. But they will have to present them in court. The time for leniency is passed, and imprisonment faces those who tried to evade their duty to their country.
