THE WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

By "GM" Drug Stores.

A drug store is a place where druggists go after studying drugs for three years so they will know how to sell baseball bats and ice cream, chamois and tooth-picks, soap, cigars, candy and celluloid pacifiers.

Some drug stores consist of a back door and a prescription case. In Kansas all saloons are drug stores, but not all drug stores are saloons. There are honest druggists in Kansas. We mustn't judge all Kansans by the men who compile the real estate prospectuses.

LETTERS FROM THE FRONT

me, La Grande, Oregon.)—Dear Madam:—We have received your letter of May 30th relative to the effects of your late son William Claude Halsten, and wish to thank you for the words of appreciation contained therein.

Your son's death came so suddenly that he did not realize that the end was coming, consequently he did not leave any parting message. He was bright and cheerful at all times and never expressed a regret for having enlisted in the service of his country.

Please be assured that everything possible was done for him and that you have the deepest sympathy of all of us in your bereavement.

Very sincerely, F. H. WEBB, Surgeon U. S. Navy, Acting Commanding.
