"The Rummy" With Wilfred Lucas in the Title Role.

This is a story of newspaper activity reform politics and the underworld, tintured with a few original touches and characterizations, that make it truly distinctive. The plot involves the zealous efforts of a reporter who tries to expose a crooked political ring. This gets him "in bad" with the newspaper proprietor, who is in sympathy with the grafters. The reporter loses his job and is up against it. Everybody throws him over, including his friends and sweetheart. This because false rumors are circulated about him. But there is no holding a "good man down." He comes back stronger than ever—and then there are some "big doings."

Wilfred Lucas has the star role in this production. He has a unique character to portray and does it convincingly. As the Rummy, who straightens out the crooked plot, Mr. Lucas has a make-up for his character that will excite considerable comment. Mr. Lucas is fast becoming popular. His work in "Hell-to-Pay" Austin has established him permanently as one of the bright and particular stars in the Triangle constellation.

Cove News Notes

Cove, June 14.—(Special)—An auxiliary to the La Grande Chapter of Red Cross was organized in Cove Monday evening. Mrs. Mossman, the first vice president of the La Grande Chapter, gave a short talk stating the history of the Red Cross movement from the time of its inception, when Florence Nightingale did such noble work in the Crimean war in 1854 and later during the Civil War in 1861 when Clara Barton made her name immortal by her excellent work among the soldiers up to the present time and impressing upon her hearers the grave necessity of entering upon the Red Cross work with heart and soul.

The Rev. Dr. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of La Grande made a splendid speech bringing some of the horrors of war before the audience. Mrs. Goodhue, also of La Grande, spoke on the object of the Red Cross and organized the Cove auxiliary. Rev. E. O. Otts, chairman of the evening was elected chairman of the auxiliary. Mrs. E. W. Pease, first vice chairman. Hugh McCall, treasurer. Mrs. B. E. Anderson, secretary. The executive committee met Tuesday afternoon and appointed the heads of committees as follows: Civilian committee, Frank Galloway; military committee, Mrs. Hugh McCall; membership committee, Miss Eunice Ramsdall; publicity committee, Calvin Goss; finance committee, Robert Baxter.

Boys And Girls Who Wants To See The Circus Free Here Is Your Chance To Go As The Guests Of The Observer

The Observer Wild Animal Prize Contest. To the Wild Animal Editor: I hereby certify I am not over 15 years of age and I submit names of wild animals in your prize contest for free tickets to the Al G. Barnes Big Four Ring Wild Animal Circus, exhibiting in La Grande, June 26. Name: Address:

How would you like to win tickets to the Al G. Barnes Big Four Ring Animal circus, the most marvelous circus in the world, where lions and bears and tigers and leopards, and the funniest little monkeys and dogs ride horses?

Of course you want to win some of these tickets, and The Observer is going to help you do it. Now, read this carefully, every word of it, and then get your pencil, ask Papa or Mamma or teacher to help you, and get busy.

The Barnes Circus, with wild and domestic animals doing all the things that people are seen doing in other circuses, is coming to La Grande on June 26. It will come into town on two railroad trains of double-length cars. It will unload hundreds of the most beautiful animal cages, band wagons, calliopes and banners, and at 10:30 o'clock a. m. it will give a parade, two miles long, w. a. s. t. h. a. t. o. n. . s. m.

Then folks will have time to go home and eat a good dinner, after which they may go to the show grounds at 1 o'clock and see a high dive by a dare-devil who is willing to risk his life each day to thrill you. This will be free for everybody.

Then will come an hour of band music, and the Barnes Circus carries six concert and military bands. The doors of the circus open at 1 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the circus opens. Then, in the evening, the circus doors will open at 7 o'clock and the audience. Mrs. Goodhue, also of La Grande, spoke on the object of the Red Cross and organized the Cove auxiliary.

Rev. E. O. Otts, chairman of the evening was elected chairman of the auxiliary. Mrs. E. W. Pease, first vice chairman. Hugh McCall, treasurer. Mrs. B. E. Anderson, secretary.

The executive committee met Tuesday afternoon and appointed the heads of committees as follows: Civilian committee, Frank Galloway; military committee, Mrs. Hugh McCall; membership committee, Miss Eunice Ramsdall; publicity committee, Calvin Goss; finance committee, Robert Baxter.
