Finds Indian Relic.

An Indian war hatchet, a relic of the past days was found on the McClure farm near Ladd Canyon recently by J. N. McClure. The hatchet which was used by the Indians for hewing purposes and not a war hatchet is a perfect specimen. It is one rarely found in this community as the Indians of this immediate vicinity so the old pioneers tell us were not stone cutters of renown. It has been placed on exhibit by City Manager Currey in the G. S. Birnie Jewelry store with a collection of other relics.
