MARKET REVIEW.

Portland, June 19.—(Special)—Yesterday's receipts were 800 cattle; 1000 hogs; 400 sheep.

Cattle.

Yesterday's market in beef steers was active, with prices ranging from 25 to 55 cents higher, which was the first real upturn the market has had for about a month. Buyers had to step lively to get in at all on the supply, which was sold out in the early morning hours. All killers seem to be in need of immediate supplies. While there were no strictly fat steers in the entire run, with the exception of one head at 10.50; they are quoting prime hard grass steers from $10.25 to $10.50; four loads of very good California steers brought $10.00, which sold about 25 cents higher. Several loads of very good yearling steers although not fat brought $9.25 to $9.50, ordinary and medium steers brought the biggest advances for the day, most of which sold 50 cents higher, with one sale fully 55 cents higher. Sales on these grades ranged from $8.00 to $9.00. Demand for killers did not seem to want and prices were fully steady with a week ago, and in many cases 25 cents higher, that is, on fat stuff. The best cows sold from $8.25 to $8.75; with a few choice heifers going at $9.00. Thin dairy bred stuff, of which there was quite a spread yesterday, got only steady bids, prices ranged from $5.00 to $7.00. There were only a few thin bulls on the market, with very little demand and steady prices. Best heavy bulls selling from $7.00 to $7.75.

Hogs.

With the smallest Monday run of hogs in years on the market yesterday it did not seem to have any effect on prices. All the sellers could do was to get a steady bid. Demand continues very light. Several loads of prime hogs brought $15.25 for the bulk of good hogs. Packers were not willing to give over $15.00. Pigs and grass hogs are still being cut very hard with the bulk bringing $12.00. Sheep.

Prices in the sheep house are from 25 to 75 cents lower than a week ago, although there was a steady market yesterday. Good to choice spring lambs are selling mostly at $13.50, with culls from $11.00 to $12.00. Yearlings, wethers and ewes, especially heavy ones were in for a trimming at the close of the week, prices being off 50 to 75 cents. The choice shorn yearlings sold from $10.75 to $11.00 with wethers from $10.25 to $10.50; good to choice shorn ewes brought $9 to $9.50; with good heavy ewes from $8.50 to $9.00. Culls are selling from $5.00 to $7.00. Receipts of sheep the past week, while not heavy were of comparatively good volume, but demand was not very great.

LONE FIR CEMETERY IN POTATOES AND ONIONS

Portland, Ore., June 20.—(United Press)—Potatoes and onions are growing between the tombstones of Lone Fir cemetery, Oregon's pioneer graveyard. Thrifty and patriotic householders along the western side of the cemetery, finding backyards and vacant lots too small to hold their war gardens, stepped over the cemetery fence and planted vegetables among the tombstones of pioneers laid to their last rest over 50 years ago. The gardens were reported to the office of District Attorney Evans, who said today that an Oregon law against the desecration of graves was apparently violated.
