NEWS BREVITIES ABOUT CHAUTAUQUA

Chautauqua association tents, placed in Chautauqua row are wired without special orders from those who rent them. The same sort of tents, placed anywhere else on the ground—where the renter may indicate, must be wired at the orders of those who rent them but the Chautauqua pays 50 cents of the wiring expense. There are still some tents available, and the tenting space still has some desirable tracts left. A new arrangement for the Sunday morning services during Chautauqua has been proposed by the Ministerial association and goes into effect this year. The various churches will each year take turns about at conducting the Sunday morning exercises. This year that duty falls upon the Methodist church and the other protestant institutions will join in with the Methodists in the morning at the park. There will be no evening services at the park but Rev. J. J. Tickner, of the Baptist church will hold services in town for those who do not attend the park program that evening. Tenting Spaces Taken. During the "spell" of nice weather prevalent the demand for camping space has been brisk and most of the very choice places are asked for already. Now that settled weather is seemingly assured, the usual campers want to reserve their regular space. Treasurer Cochran Returns. George T. Cochran, treasurer of the association has returned from Portland and will lead a hand in the final arrangements for the assembly which opens July 27th. Park Attracts Hundreds. Yesterday the park at Riverside was well thronged with recreation seekers and numerous dinner and supper parties were enjoyed. During the afternoon a religious service was participated in by a group of men and women. Sour Stomach. This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.—Adv.

Earning, Spending and Saving

Making money is a business; spending it a necessity; saving it an art.
Many people make money; practically every one spends money; but only the thrifty save it.
Thrift means laying aside the extra dollar that represents youth and vigor to offset the minus dollar that later on will represent old age and decreased vitality.
