Clio, Mich., June 23.—(Special)—Floyd Mann, with his bride, is the guest of Mrs. Luther Benjamin. Mr. Mann lived in Clio and vicinity until four years ago when he went to Oregon where he remained for three years. While in Oregon he met Miss Ethel Pierson, a native of La Grande. A year ago Mr. Mann returned to this part of the country and has since been working in Flint. A short time ago he went to Lee, Illinois, where he met Miss Pierson and they were married. Mrs. Mann's mother and sister accompanied her east and were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Mann will make their home in Flint.

RED CROSS WORK STILL GOING ON

Not Too Late To Give. Once more the general staff urges upon all such as have not been asked to give, to freely offer their mites to the Y. M. C. A. tonight or Monday. Furthermore, all other sources of income to the Red Cross such as percentages of sales and the like conducted during the week, should be turned in early Monday morning to permit the clerical force ample time to check over the total of gifts that the figures Monday night may be accurate. We appeal to you to keep up vigorous canvass to the close of the campaign and take your place among first cities of your class."

COOK IN COMFORT

- No wood, coal or ashes to lug
- Economical
- Convenient as GAS
- No Smoke or Smell

Cook with a good oil stove this summer—does not heat up the kitchen, yet it roasts, toasts, broils, bakes, better and quicker than your regular kitchen range. No wood, coal or ashes to lug, no dirt, no lost time waiting for slow fires. Convenient as gas. No smoke or odor. Look for the New Perfection specially decorated windows this week, at the stores listed below. Then let the merchant explain the New Perfection Oil Cookstove. Look for the orange discs.

- A CALL TO WORSHIP.
La Grande, June 23.—My Dear Mr. Leiter: After the strenuous week of gathering the Red Cross Fund, and bringing it to a successful result, would it not be a gracious thing to gather in our several houses of worship tomorrow and give grateful thanks to Almighty God for this generous response of the people. For after all, we are not fighting our own battles, but the battle for humanity, and God. To be where the White Standard of Christ waves, ought to be glory enough for any man.
Henry of Navarra:
"And if my standard-bearer fall"
As fall full well he may,
For never saw I promise yet of such gallant day;
Press where ye see my white plume wave above the ranks of war.
And be your oriflame today the helmet of Navarra.
REV. CHAS. A. EDWARDS,
Pastor Methodist Episcopal Church.

We are the people that make the Famous Elgin Creamery Butter, and The Hug Store sells it in La Grande. Ask the Hug Grocery for a Pound of the butter, and if it is not as representative just take it back and get your money back. All in one-pound rolls, and in waxed cartons, and every pound guaranteed.
