

PROVE YOUR LOYALTY BY PATRONIZING LOCAL DEALERS

We have adopted as a slogan—

"Business as usual"

The farmer's slogan should be—

"Greater and better crops"

Other industries should adopt similar slogans, and then we should all live up to them so that the best interests of our community may be conserved. We can render our greatest service to the Government by keeping all industries moving.

Co-operation is necessary. It is time when we should all work together for the common good of our community. Patronize home dealers. Keep the money at home.

We are ready to do our part by supplying high-grade drug store goods at prices that are right.

La Grande Pharmacy

ADOLPH NEWLIN, Manager

Quick Delivery

La Grande, Oregon

Phone Main 44

& Libby, 200 tons; Karl J. Stackland, 240 tons; Karl J., C. M. & G. G. Stackland, crops not yet sold, 120 tons.

Mr. Stackland was at Baker City last week and made arrangements for a large amount of help from that city during the picking season, and thinks we may be able to solve the help problem before the time comes round, and get the crop harvested successfully.

All the newspapers in the valley are giving us valuable publicity about our cherry crop and our annual cherry fair that will come off some time in July. —Cove Sentinel.

"HOW THE WAR CAME TO AMERICA"

Pamphlet Now Being Printed Tells Why U. S. Entered Conflict

Washington, June 28.—(Special)—The Committee on Public Information issues the following:

"How the War Came to America," is now coming off the press, and an edition of 20,000 copies is being sent out to the newspapers of the country under a release date of June 26. The government Printing Office is at work printing a much larger edition for general circulation. This final edition has the cover printed in the national colors, and, besides the text sent out to the newspapers, includes as appendices three addresses of the President's, viz, the address to the Senate of January 22, the war message, and the Flag Day speech.

This pamphlet, the first of this kind issued by the committee on public information, was determined upon as the result of the mass of letters which have come in to all government officials from all parts of the country asking for an exact and comprehensive statement of why the United States went into the war. The pamphlet is to be translated into a large number of languages and will be circulated broadcast.

Announcements

Notice to Public.

Notice is hereby given that John E. Anderson has assigned his interest title and claim to the Leighton garage to R. W. Leighton the former owner. Mr. Anderson will pay all claims contracted by him while in charge of the Leighton garage. He will continue to hold the Maxwell agency and by agreement with Mr.

Wild and Extravagant----

Claims are being made by many merchants in regard to the daily increase of materials and labor—to an extent this is true—but not the enormous increase that different merchants would like for you to believe—In purchasing your wants it will pay you to visit our store—compare our quality and prices—You will soon be convinced that you can do better at a J. C. Penney Co. Store.

Men's Poris Knit Unions	49c, 89c
Men's Needle Ribbed Unions	49c, 98c, $1.25, $1.49
Men's Two-Piece Garments	25c, 45c, 49c
Men's Work Shirts	59c, 69c, 98c
Men's Khaki Shirts	$1.49
Men's Work Pants	$1.69, $1.98, $2.49
Men's Khaki Pants	98c, $1.19, $1.49
Men's Dress Shirts	69c, 98c, $1.49, $1.98
Men's Work Shoes	$2.19, $2.98, $3.50, $3.98, $4.98
Teamsters' Aprons	69c
Carpenters' Aprons	39c, 59c
Leather Faced Gauntlet Gloves	19c

LADIES' KHAKI OVERALLS—the kind you long wanted ..... $1.59

THE STORE WHERE THE MASSES TRADE

J. C. Penney Co.

Incorporated
175 BUSY STORES
Formerly The United Store

FOLLOW THE CROWDS THERE'S A REASON

COVE CHERRY CROP.

Karl J. Stackland, one of our most prominent cherry growers and a dealer and shipper of fruits of wide experience, well known to the trade, is authority for the statement that barring accidents, the cherry crop in the Cove this season will be considerably over a thousand tons of marketable cherries, and in addition to the figures of contracts made with the growers, given in former issues of the Sentinel, he gives other contracts and makes up a total of one thousand tons, as follows:

The Oregon Packing Co., 100 tons; California Glaze Fruit Co., 150 tons; Long Trust Products Co., 60 tons; Denny & Co., 130 tons; Libby, McNeil

The Beautiful Paramount Star Pauline Frederick

Supported by Thomas Meighan and an all star cast

IN

"SLEEPING FIRES"

A powerful story of Mother-Love and Self-Sacrifice

ARCADE Friday and Saturday

The Big Fun Maker Fatty Arbuckle

In his second special Paramount
COMEDY

"A RECKLESS REMEO"

A Corking Two Reel Laugh Producer
from Start to Finish

Coming Monday and Tuesday
CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG

Leighton will provide service to Maxwell owners. Mr. Leighton respectfully solicits the patronage of his former clients and the public in general.

R. W. LEIGHTON,
JOHN E. ANDERSON.
—Adv. 6-23-tf.

Notice to Water Users.
Owing to changes being made in Beaver creek pipe line there will be a shortage of water for a few days. Water users will please use as little water as possible and refrain from irrigating for the next three days.

L. M. HOYT,
Water Superintendent.
—Adv. June 26-tf.

Pioneer Meeting, July 5.
Annual Pioneer meeting, July 5, 1917, at City Park. Let all pioneers come and bring full baskets. Coffee and tea served free at the grounds.
D. A. McALESTER, Pres.
—Adv. 6-27-tf.

Notice, Honor Guard.
On account of Dr. Bouvy being called out of town there will be no meeting of the Honor Guard tonight. Everyone out promptly at 7:15 Monday night. Important business.—Adv. 6-28-1t.

Professional Announcement.
Dr. R. F. Murphy, formerly with Dr. H. S. Brownson wishes to announce that he has moved his office to Suite 20 in the new Sommer Building where he will practice dentistry with his brother, Dr. L. L. Murphy. Special attention will be given to the straightening of children's teeth. The office will be open Monday, July 2nd.
—Adv. 6-28-5t.

NEW TODAY

LOST—A small tiger-grey female kitten. Reward. Main 764.
—Adv. 6-28-2t

FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms, light housekeeping. Call 2001 Second St.; phone Black 1591. 6-28-tf

WANTED—Clean rags.—Apply at Observer office.

WANTED—Position as housekeeper. Address. Housekeeper, care Observer.—Adv. 6-28-3tp.

FOR RENT—Office rooms over Levy-Vogel Drug store. Inquire Levy-Vogel.—Adv. 6-28-tf.

DR BROUGHER SPEAKS.

(Continued from Page 1.)

rods and dust, known as bacteria. "Scientists discovered that bacteria were the cause of decay in human tissues. If germs are destroyed health is restored. Therefore we should seek to avoid germs at all hazards."

Chauncey Hawkins Tonight.
Tonight the Davenny Festival Quintet gives another program and Chauncey Hawkins, will deliver his illustrated lecture and show his wonderful pictures of wild life in the north woods.

It's a Way They Have.

An attorney was consulted by a woman desirous of bringing action for a divorce and related a harrowing tale of ill-treatment. So impressive was her recital that the lawyer, for a moment, was startled out of his usual professional composure.

"From what you say this man must be a brute of the worst type!" he exclaimed.

The applicant for divorce arose and, with severe dignity, announced: "Sir, I shall consult another lawyer. I came here to get advice as to a divorce, not to hear my husband vilified.

THE POET'S CORNER
* * * * *
* * * * *

Our Good Dog, "Beauty."
The first time he came he had no name,
No home and no place to even lie down;
But he had nice ways even those days,
Long silk hair, and eyes of deep brown.

My dear little niece left us no peace,
She wanted a dog so she could play.
She saw nothing wrong when he came along,
Though he was just a poor little "stray."

"You little 'cutie,' your name's Beauty,
Like the little dog's we left back east,"
Wrong name for a male—he wagged his tail
As if 'twere proper, dear little beast!

He right away, sir, took up with her.
He became her dear playmate and friend.
So faithful and good—we understood,
He'd remain that way clear to the end.

But there came a time—it seemed a crime!
For her to turn him over to me.
She had a big cry, couldn't see why
Such an awful thing needed to be.

I lived in the hills—had many thrills
Chasing cougar, coyote and bear.
For long years we "batted"—became attached.
Very much to each other up there.

Then at last one came to share my name,
From her native land across the sea.
It made her so glad to see I had
Such a remarkable dog with me.

He became her pet when they first met,
Her companion and protector too.
There was not a task that she could ask,
That he would not most willingly do.

He was a treasure—source of pleasure;
He almost could speak, almost could laugh.

When at last he died all of us cried;
He was half human, yes, more than half.

We'll never forget our darling pet
Who was always so faithful and true!
When something is said of loved ones dead
We'll always think of our Beauty too.

J. H. BLUMENSTEIN.

A Boy's Answer.

He is a very small boy, just beyond the limits of babyhood. The other day some one asked him if he was not father's boy. He answered: "Yes." "And are you mother's boy, too?" "Yes," replied Charlie. "Well, how can you be father's boy and mother's boy at the same time?" "Oh," replied Charlie, indifferently, "can't a wagon have two horses?"

JOSEPH H. CHOATE DEVOTED TO THE END

New York, June 21—(By mail)—Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., of the American Red Cross War Council, which handled the Red Cross campaign for its $1,000,000,000 fund tells this story of the devotion to public duty shown by Joseph H. Choate to the very last. "Two or three days before Mr. Choate died, I called up his house about six o'clock at night. It was during the week that the British and French commissioners were in New York and Mr. Choate was going about with them all day long, although eighty-three years of age. I called up his house and asked if I could see him. They said that he was out and that I probably could not see him that afternoon, because when he came in he had to turn right around and go out at seven o'clock to a dinner with the British and French commissions, but if I could get to his house before half past nine the next morning, I should probably have an opportunity to see him. So I arrived at his house in time and found him up and all ready to go out with the British and French Commission again for the day. I put this Red Cross proposition before him and asked if he would head one of the teams we were organizing to solicit funds and give up a week of his time to doing this work for the Red Cross. He thought it over for a moment and then said, "I was going to the country before that, but this is a very important piece of work, and it is an opportunity to be of service, real service, and you can count on me!"

Personal Mention

Mrs. R. C. McLane went to Baker yesterday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter White.

B. L. Hyland, who has been employed by the O.-W. engineering department in this city leaves tonight for Portland where he intends to enlist in the engineering corps of the army.

Mr. Seaman, traveling accountant for the O.-W., has just returned from Spokane where he has been the past week looking over company business.

George H. Black, formerly agent here of the American Express Co., is in the city today on a vacation. Mr. Black is meeting many friends. He is now stationed at Wallace, Idaho. He is on his way to Omaha for a visit.

Boy Scouts Hike.
Boy Scouts, troop 2, leave for the hills tonight on an overnight hike. Troop 2 is now training for first class tests in wigwagging.

Too Much of a Good Thing.

George was hampered by a mother whose great idea was cleanliness. Notwithstanding the frequent baths to which he was condemned, George thrived exceedingly. One day a neighbor remarked on his rapid growth. "Yes," said George, "that's ma's fault. She waters me so much."