did not forget to shower his choicest treasures upon all that remained of his friend.

Lewis was 28 years of age and second son of the late Mary and William Noble, pioneer residents of La Grande, also brother of Chrissy Noble Golithon, who departed this life about two years ago. The immediate family left to mourn his loss are: Wm. G. Noble, George M. Noble and Margaret Noble, all of this city, also a sister Elizabeth Noble-Stenberg, of Whitewater, Wisconsin.

The remains were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery beside five others of the family who had preceded him.

There rests beneath the quiet sod The form of one we loved, No more as comrades we will tramp Out with the rod and gun His feet grew tired by the way, His soul it longed to go To find the rest beyond this veil That here we cannot know; He saw his loved ones beckoning Upon the other shore, So closed his weary eyes in death To earth's cares evermore. Not gone from us forever, no! Ah! that could never be, For soon we'll clasp glad hands again In heaven eternally.

Motorcycle Dealers Give Fishing Trip

Do you own a motorcycle? If so you are among the picked bunch tomorrow providing you like a good trip with a good bunch and fishing after you arrive at your destination. The substance of the situation is, that the motorcycle dealers of La Grande have decided to give a fishing party to Catherine Creek tomorrow and all who own motorcycles are eligible to go.

And, listen! Don't bring any cats with you. Togg up for your trip, get your fishing traps together, and be ready to start about nine-thirty o'clock. The management is looking after the cats so lay all worry aside and chug-chug your way to the land of water nymphs and wood spirits and enjoy nature for a day. If you are on Adams Avenue at nine-thirty tomorrow morning you will not need to ask where the speedsters meet; you will see them all there.

Funeral Of Lewis F. Noble Is Held

The funeral services of Lewis F. Noble were held June 28 at the Bohoncamp Chapel, where a very impressive service was conducted by the Rev. G. L. Clark of the First Presbyterian church. An earnest appeal was made by him especially to the large number of young men present who came to pay their last tribute to the departed one, who had been their comrade and friend for many years. He was loved by all who knew him for his generous, kindhearted and jovial spirit. Even in his hours of suffering he would try to cast the shadow from before him and appear happy. He passed away June 26, from hemorrhage of the bowels which developed after an operation for catarrh of the bowels; he also had a severe case of hemorrhoids. He seemed to be convalescing and all had hopes of his recovery when suddenly a hemorrhage developed which quickly brought to an end the life of one who had gone in and out in our midst these many years.

The deceased was born in La Grande, December 23, 1889 and had always remained and made his home in this city. He became an employe of the O. W. R. & N. Co. about 10 years ago and since that time had been continually in its service until his health failed. He was also a member of the B. O. L. E. and F. who attended the funeral in a body and also acted as pallbearers. They proved to be his faithful friends to the end and did all they could to bring him sunshine and cheer during the long months of his illness; and also showed their sympathy and love in the beautiful floral offerings which almost completely covered the casket. The deceased also held a warm place in the heart of C. L. Kaler, of the Willow Glen Nurseries, who

Mrs. F. M. Harper, who has been visiting with Mrs. J. W. Bush, left for a brief visit at Union this morning. She will pay a short visit here on her way home.

Mrs. J. H. Minnaugh and children, of Wallowa, who have been visiting with Mrs. Minnaugh's mother, Mrs. Mason of this city, returned home this morning.

Born to Raymond Swan and wife, of 2804 Second street, this city, last night, a baby girl. Weight 8 pounds. Both mother and baby reported as doing well.

Lawn Party Tonight. A lawn party will be given tonight on the lawn of Mrs. J. E. Foley by the ladies of the Altar society of the Catholic church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend and every one is assured an enjoyable evening.
