

Try This Talcum

It Will Stand the Test

There is nothing better for the toilet or nursery than a delightful talcum powder. It is good for the skin and pleasant to use.

Squibb's Talcum

is a pure antiseptic powder of impalpable fineness. It is healing, cooling and refreshing in effect; especially desirable as a face powder in hot weather, as it does not dissolve in perspiration or clog the pores of the skin.

"SCOOTY" DUTTON LEAVES HOSPITAL FOR RANCH

"Scooty" Dutton, who had his leg broken about three weeks ago, left the hospital this morning and was taken to the Albert Hunter ranch where he will recuperate. "Scooty" played with the famous O. A. C. football eleven that beat Michigan two years ago but probably is out of college football although he has two more years to play. His leg which was broken in the first real game of the season last year, the Multnomah-O. A. C., was rebroken in the same place in the runaway which he was in some time ago.

EVERETT KNOWLES RETURNS HOME FOR A BRIEF VISIT

Everett Knowles, the son of Judge Knowles and a well known young man of this city, has returned for a short stay of about ten days. Everett was called home as a witness in the trial of Chong Bing, a Chinaman who is on trial at the present time.

Young Knowles is a member of the navy, having joined about three months ago. He is stationed at San Diego, California. He says that he likes the navy life but is especially well pleased with his present location.

Miss Eva Ruby, of the Western Union staff, is in the hospital. She was operated on last night for appendicitis. She was well Sunday and was taken ill Monday night and was operated on last night. She is getting along well today.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Crymes will be glad to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Crymes are father and mother of a 9-pound baby boy born July 1. Mr. Crymes is a Sunday School evangelist and formerly had his headquarters in La Grande. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Crymes moved to Seattle.

Last night the choir of the Baptist church and friends, gave a very pleasant surprise to Mrs. Dr. Starba. Dr. Starba has been organist for the Baptist church for some time but has resigned as she is going to Pendleton to live and the party last night was really a farewell. A musical program was rendered which was appreciated by all present. Refreshments were also served. The pastor, Reverend Tickner presented Dr. Starba with a silver ladle in behalf of the Baptist Women's Outlook Circle. Dr. Starba will leave for Pendleton tomorrow spending her last night with Mrs. Tickner the pastor's wife.

Doing Good.

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. John F. Jantzen, Delmeny, Sask., says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."—Adv.

summer in the potato patch and wheat field, according to Percy E. Arlett, one of those most actively engaged in forwarding the plan. He suggests that all "drummers" give their vacation to the government in the food production drive and that employers lengthen the vacation period of the drummers to four or six weeks. Three thousand city and traveling salesmen in British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and Idaho could hoe quite a garden, Arlett opines.

Montana Horses To Fast.

Helena, Mont., July 11.—(United Press)—Montana horses are too fast for Hjelmar Wolen. He was employed as a farm hand by the Gillette Ranch company at Hogan. He tried to ride a locoed horse and lasted about a minute and a half. Today he has on file here a suit for $11,000 against the Gillette Ranch company, alleging that he was permanently injured.
