ARCADE

MARGARET ILLINGTON AT ARCADE TOMORROW.

In these strenuous times the subject of war and international spying are uppermost in the mind. "Sacrifice," in which the celebrated stage star Margaret Illington makes her motion picture debut, concerns this all-absorbing topic. It is a Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company production released by Paramount and is the attraction at the Arcade theatre on Friday and Saturday.

The story of "sacrifice," which was written especially for Mrs. Illington by Charles Kenyon, author of several of her greatest stage successes, relates the dramatic story of half sisters, one of whom is the daughter of a diplomat and the other is a cabaret dancer in the neighboring—and hostile—country. The girls become involved in the international spying systems of the countries and one of them is called upon to make the supreme sacrifice for her country.

Newspapers For Religion.

Hood River, Ore., July 11.—(United Press)—Old New York is nearer heaven than ever before. Instead of being gold hearted, the great city is good-hearted.

This today is the opinion of Billy Sunday, now resting on his ranch here. He recently completed a campaign against the devil in New York and came west to store up strength for his next revival.

"The distance from New York to Heaven is not so great as it was 10 weeks ago," said Reverend Billy. "No longer will the people of the rural districts of the Middle West think of simply the 'Great White Way' when they hear of New York. Now they will think of New York as the city that rolled up the greatest record for God.

"Never before did the newspapers show their power and sympathy with religion as much as they did during the New York campaign, and thus they added tremendously to the success of the campaign.

"It's now up to the churches, pastors and trail-hitters to keep the fight going until the old devil is completely routed in New York.

"Let every last fellow get into the game and hit hard and steadily until the winning ball is scored."

Billy will open his next campaign in Los Angeles.
