

Try This Talcum

It Will Stand the Test

There is nothing better for the toilet or nursery than a delightful talcum powder. It is good for the skin and pleasant to use.

Squibb's Talcum

is a pure antiseptic powder of impalpable fineness. It is healing, cooling and refreshing in effect; especially desirable as a face powder in hot weather, as it does not dissolve in perspiration or clog the pores of the skin.

Hot Lake Notes

Mrs. Grace Barrie Becomes Matron of Hot Lake Sanatorium—Red Cross Auxiliary Organized—List of Guests and Patients Registered.

Hot Lake, July 11.—(Special)—Mrs. Grace Barrie, well known in La Grande and who for several years has been matron superintendent at the general hospital at Weiser, Idaho, has accepted an appointment as matron of the Hot Lake Sanatorium. Mrs. Barrie will take up her new position during the present week.

It is perhaps not generally known that the little community at the Sanatorium have formed an auxiliary of the Red Cross association. They are auxiliary to the La Grande chapter of the Red Cross. Mrs. W. T. Phy is chairman, Miss Ida Bean, secretary, and Miss Motley, treasurer. All members are of the sanatorium staff of nurses and other employees and are showing tangible results in making many of the standardized items of Red Cross necessities. Up to date they have also raised $43.00 in membership fees, etc.

Many of the guests and patients, convalescent, are giving much of their time to making Red Cross necessities.

The following guests and patients registered at the Sanatorium during the past week end:

J. Farris, Duncan; J. F. McElvin, Will Borarz and wife, Antone; J. F. Slater, Boher; Mrs. Mary Payne, R. D. Zweifel, Elgin; Mrs. J. M. Hiken, R. Harrison, Toppenish; Walter E. Pierce, Boise; F. X. Henry, of Endicott; Joseph Hawsone, Lewiston; F. J. Vancie, Halley; Thos. J. Mosley, Halfway.

Professor Horner Coming. Professor J. B. Horner, of the Oregon Agricultural College, will be at the Foley Hotel, La Grande, during the afternoon of July 16, for the purpose of meeting prospective students and others interested in the Oregon Agricultural College.

Public Safety Committee Organized

A Public Safety Committee was organized yesterday afternoon at a meeting of citizens at which Harvey Wells, State Fire Marshal, and Jay Stevens, of Portland, were present. The officers are Clarke Leiter, president; T. J. Scroggin, vice-president; and F. L. Meyers, secretary-treasurer. This committee will co-operate with the State Council of Defense and will take all necessary steps to guard the public interests in Union County. Similar committees are being organized in Umatilla and Baker Counties.
