Prosperity --- A War Measure During peace prosperity is essential to progress. During war it is absolutely vital to the nation's life. The country's Chief Executive sounded the call for immediate service in all lines of industrial endeavor when he said that "our industries must be made more prolific and more efficient than ever." This Institution is cooperating to the fullest measure with business interests in maintaining prosperity. United States National Bank La Grande Oregon

DIARY TELLS OF CRUELTY OF GERMAN INVADERS

Diary of French Citizen of Savy Continued—Residents Sent to Jail for Failing to Salute Germans—Many Germans Drink on Easter Sunday—Livestock Confiscated—Church Bells Taken—Boys and Girls Taken in Bondage—Inhabitants Glad To Be Free of the German Yoke.

(The third and last of the William Field, June 26—(By mail)—To judge Philip Simms stories from the diary of a French citizen of Savy follows.) BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent) With the British Armies in the cution. Some of the entries in this record of enemy occupation of Savy have already been given. Here are some more:

February 10 (1916): A son of M. Dumortier has had to do eight days for failing to salute a German officer. M. Louis Demarly and Jules Guffroy Guivier, were condemned to 14 days prison at Vermand for not saluting a German.

February 14: The Germans tell me there are 800,000 war widows in Germany, that they have taken 17,000 prisoners at Verdun; that they have 60,000 Frenchmen surrounded at Verdun. Is it true?

February 22: The constable announces that no beasts are to be killed unless four days notice is given the German authorities.

February 26: I am told that Verdun has been taken. We are forbidden to give bread or tobacco to Russian prisoners working here.

April 22: Notice posted announcing all small balloons carrying printed matter which may be found, must be taken to the Kommandaturat Holnon.

April 23: Easter Sunday; Germans passed in drinking and towards evening many of the Germans were drunk.

June 14: Schools closed until June 25 so pupils can work in the fields.

June 19: Children are gathering currants, cherries, strawberries, etc for Germans.

July 1: Bombardment last night and today intense and uninterrupted. (Note: Battle of the Somme began July 1.)

July 6: Wagons full of wounded going past.

September 26: Forbidden to give food to French prisoners forced to work on aerodrome.

June 15: Childrer, gare gatherir Germans to take away a chest of drawers M. Baloche has been fined 200 francs and imprisoned 15 days at Holnon and Mme. Baloche 10 days in St. Quentin.

October 5: This morning my mother and I went to look for some things we needed in the cupboard. We found everything removed to make way for shirts and things belonging to a German who had moved in without notice.

October 12: There is typhus at Savy. No more passes will be given civilians.

October 18: Council discusses evacuation of inhabitants.

October 31: Great artillery combat on. Much thieving going on.

November 2: Germans intend taking everything, including agricultural implements, nails. Flock of sheep driven past by M. Maurice's shepherd. He said: "Here goes 20,000 francs out of Savy."

November 10: Only three cows left in Savy.

November 14: "Center for ammunition distribution for French on Somme, at Cherisy, blown up by German aeroplanes. I heard explosion.

November 20: Mme Catry fined 40 francs for giving French soldiers (prisoners) coffee.

November 30: For several days Germans busy destroying M. Gronnier's high wall. They have started on our garden.

December 1: Germans destroying houses wholesale. About 2 a. m. I heard two loud explosions.

Dec. 12: German office clerk told me Gen. Joffre had resigned. The Germans held him in high esteem. They said he is a great general.

December 18: Germans enter houses taking all copper they find.

December 21: Germans take three large bells from church tower. They made a large opening and let bells fall into street.

December 25: Nothing remains in Savy. All implements taken. All fruit trees cut.

December 30: Great flurry and

"Books Wanted for the Soldiers—Have You a Book to Spare?"

The Y. M. C. A. is undertaking on a large scale the collection of books for the soldiers. "Thousands of young men are assembled in the military camps of the state. Books are needed. You are invited to contribute whatever books you can spare. These books must be readable. There will be little use for old, uninteresting books. Our men are citizen-soldiers, with the same varying tastes of men in civil life. Almost any current book of general interest will be likely to find readers. "Good novels, stories of adventure will be in demand, also books of history, biography, travel, essays, science, military history, and especially books about the present war; in short, almost any book that appeals to the average reader." "What can we do in La Grande? Will you give one or more books for this purpose? The Portland public library will be the clearing-house for these books; they will not become the property of the library, but will be the gifts of our citizens to the soldiers. Mark your packages "Books for soldiers," and leave at the La Grande library, Fourth and Pennsylvania, and do this at once." Adapted from the Oregonian June 23, p. 11.
