October, the state asking for a continuance and the defendants readily assenting this morning. Bail for the three Chinese now awaiting trial was fixed by Judge Knowles as $10,000 each. It is not expected they will be able to raise it. That appeals will be taken in the cases of conviction is taken a foregone conclusion by all connected with the case.

In the Eng murder case, this is the fourth trial and third conviction, a jury having disagreed last week in the case of one charged with complicity in the deed.

Ex-Circuit Judge Henry E. McGinn was associated with Cochran & Eberhard in the last case and Crawford & Eakin have assisted District Attorney Hodgkin in all the cases.
