ANNOUNCEMENT.
 Social and club news for this department should be given to the Observer by phone or otherwise, during the forenoon. Such news turned in after 12 o'clock, noon, will frequently have to be held for publication the following day.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gale Sturdivant went to Pendleton Sunday for a few days' visit.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews spent Saturday and Sunday at Wallowa Lake.
 Mrs. Laura B. Nash, of Pendleton, returned home yesterday after a fortnight visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe.

 Roy B. Currey, E. E. Vehrs and Eugene Newlin were in Pendleton Tuesday boosting for the Speed 'Em Up. They got a fine reception in Pendleton.
 State Superintendent J. A. Churchill was a member of the guest party to Wallowa lake Sunday and he also attended the supper held here in honor of the editorial convention.
 Professor J. B. Horner, of O. A. C., left yesterday for Wallowa where he will meet Ex-Governor T. T. Geer and confer with Secretary McDonald of the Wallowa Pioneers' association. He and Governor Geer will then attend the Pioneers' association gathering at the Lake. Professor Horner is a delightful companion and Tuesday night at the Foley hotel he entertained a few friends who called upon him with graphic reminiscences of this country, where he lived when a boy. He remembers when wheat sold for 25 cents a bushel and oats for 15 and when wages were paid in livestock or produce, and the barter system prevailed, there being very little hard cash. Professor Horner is going to write some historical sketches of this country which would be mighty fine reading. Mrs. Horner could not accompany Mr. Horner on this trip which is a matter of mutual regret.
 W. L. Powers, of the irrigation engineering department of the O. A. C., and T. D. Teeter, of the drainage department of the O. A. C., were here Tuesday conferring with Rhea Lupper and going over with him the proposed drainage district in Union county. Both men are experts in this work and they were here for the purpose of assisting Mr. Lupper, who has been put in charge of the preliminary work to determine the feasibility of the project and the extent of territory that may come under it and be benefited. Both Mr. Powers and Mr. Teeter made certain investigations and soil tests and after they have made further studies will be able to advise the property owners whether to go ahead with the project or not. Mr. Lupper has finished taking the meander lines of Catherine Creek and the Grande Ronde river.
 A quiet wedding took place at the home of J. A. Oliver Tuesday evening at 8:30 p. m. when Lula Jackson, the daughter of Mr. Oliver was united in marriage with Charles Baxter. Rev. H. L.  Send Flag to Pershing.
 Washington, July 19.—(Special)—Recently the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America requested from the Secretary of War permission to present a flag to the first American troops sent abroad to serve in the present war. The request was granted, and on the 27th of June the Quartermaster General sent the flag direct to Gen. Pershing.
