

MISS MYRTLE STEDMAN

APPEARING HERSELF IN PERSON

--AT--

THE ARCADE SUNDAY & MONDAY

Miss Stedman Will Talk To Audience She Is Soprano As Well As Actress

Miss Myrtle Stedman comes to the Arcade theatre Sunday and Monday and will meet photoplay patrons during her visit in this city. She will appear at all performances and talk to the fans about her part in the great film life. Indeed Miss Stedman is a most remarkable woman. And nature has endowed her with unusual gifts. Besides being an artistic and finished actress, she has a soprano voice that was cultivated for the grand opera stage. Besides this, she is conceded to be the most beautiful woman that has ever appeared in the silent drama. An attractive feature of the performance during her stay in this city, is Miss Stedman's gowns, which are said to be very costly, beautiful in design and most elaborate in finish. Miss Stedman will make a tour of ten weeks from the Pacific coast to New York, after which she will settle down to hard work at the head of her own corporation.

TED THYE IS HERE FOR BIG MATCH TONIGHT

SPOKANE WRESTLER IS FEELING FINE AND HOPES TO BEAT JACK O'NEILL.

Ted Thye, the Spokane wrestler, arrived last night. He says he is feeling fine and expects to give a good account of himself when he meets O'Neill tonight.

O'Neill is resting today in anticipation of a hard contest at the Arcade tonight.

The show will start at 7:30 as usual, featuring Mae Murray in "The Primrose Ring." Several good preliminaries have been arranged to start about 8:30. Mrs. M. D. Spencer, La Grande boxer, has finished her training and promises a good exhibition.

The gentlemen boxers are waiting for the call of time. The unknown quartet are trained right up to the minute and are in the pink of condition. Their specialty is singing.

A good program is promised which will be enlivened by the orchestra during the intermissions.

A large ceiling fan has been installed directly over the mat which will supply cool, fresh air to the wrestlers as well as adding comfort to the ring-side patrons.

THE YANKEE OUTFIELD NEEDS MAKING OVER

BY H. D. HAMILTON.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, July 20.—Just as badly as the Athletics need a general strengthening the New York American league baseball club will have to have a few outfielders on its payroll before it can expect to obtain fear-some consideration from its rivals. Lee Magee and Elmer Miller, two outfielders who are now gracing the staff of fly-chasers, are hopeless. Hugh High is some better, but is decidedly nothing to brag about. Tim Hendryx is the only man who appears to be anything in view of major league class. Frank Gilbooley's work this spring lets him out. If he comes back and shows the same class he displayed a year ago he will take rank with the best in the game. So far he is only a mediocre outfielder. Bill Donovan was well bilked when Lee Magee was turned over to him as the Federal league kicked in its dying throes. Once termed the only rival to Ty Cobb, and believed to be the final touch that would bring an American league pennant to the nation's metropolis, Magee has flattered badly.

When with the Cardinals Magee played fine ball. He hit around 300 all the time, his base running was excellent, his arm was good, and he could run bases with the best either league boasted. That was when he was a National leaguer. Whether it is the difference in class, or whether Magee was greatly over-rated is hard to say, but the fact remains that he looks far worse than many recruit outfielders who are annually turned back from the major leagues.

Donovan has several pitchers who are warming the bench daily. He has so many flingers, in fact, that most of them are obliged to sit around and only keep in fair condition. If he could arrange a trade that would send any of these heavies to some club with a surplus of outfielders he would be conferring a great favor on himself. Surplus outfielders, however, are extremely scarce. The National league has most of them—and getting a good outfielder out of the National league would be akin to getting the fight out of the American army. His only salvation appears to be a process of minor league scouting that may save the Yankees a year hence.

Doing Good.

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. John F. Jantzen, Delmeny, Sask., says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."—Adv.

How About Combustion?

ANYTHING will burn. The fire insurance figures show you that.

To make a cigar burn easily and evenly the way the OWL does—

That requires combustion of a different sort.

It requires carefully cured leaf—long leaf filler—hand-workmanship—that square-end shape.

But because the OWL burns properly, you get the benefit of the OWL'S Million Dollar tobacco flavor. And that's worth a nickel every time.
