

A Clear, Rosy Complexion Is But the Reflexion Of Pure Rich Blood

Pallor indicates weakness while a rosy color signifies strength. The ruddy glow of health is but the reflection of pure, rich blood showing through the skin.

All of the face creams, lotions, etc., cannot give you a clear, healthy complexion and soft, velvety skin if your blood is impure or impoverished.

A. D. S. BLOOD REMEDY

will build rich, red blood and restore new life and vigor to every organ of the body and with this new vigor will come the surface signal of health in the form of a perfect complexion. Spring is a good time to clean-up your system and clear-up your complexion.

O'NEILL IS THE CHAMPION

manner, and made no protests. O'Neill said that Thye was one of the cleverest and fastest young wrestlers that he had ever met and predicts a great future for him. The preliminaries were interesting; The Arcade orchestra was entertaining; a musical number was presented by The Unknown Quartet, which sang the "Missouri Waltz" and for an encore responded with "Don't You Ever Feel Lonely." The quartet came on the stage masked and unmasked for the encore when their personalities were revealed as J. C. Dell, Mr. Abbott of Company M, Mrs. E. H. Ford and Mrs. Clarke Leiter. Their voices blended well and the number received enthusiastic applause. Mrs. M. D. Spencer and Miss "Mary Fieldford" gave an exhibition of fancy boxing which was clever and a big hit. King, formerly of the U. S. navy boxed with Al Bridges, a popular local athlete. This was a fast two-round go. King was active and took lots of chances. Bridges demonstrated that he is an exceedingly scientific boxer, with the punch, too. Bridges is a clean-cut worker and one of the few two-fisted boxers seen in these parts, which makes his work exceedingly interesting. Ernest Vehrs officiated as referee and made an announcement on behalf of the Speed 'Em Up. Oscar Johnson and Davey Johnson put on a clever wrestling exhibition between acts, Brother Davey winning a fall in four minutes. Both boys showed class.

Fred Roberts furnished the comedy when he met Bob Garrity in a two-round boxing bout, his antics proving very amusing. Garrity is a husky boy with a punch.

The events were put on in a snappy style without waits and Mr. Emahiser is to be commended for arranging such a clean, interesting program.

WILL REPEAT SONGS TONIGHT.

By special request "The Unknown Quartette" will repeat their act tonight at the Arcade theatre.

J. T. Williamson attended the Wallowa County Pioneer's meeting this week.

Mr. Alvin Snapp has accepted a position at the La Grande Pharmacy. Sam Harris, the grocer, says that he is the mascot that won the victory for O'Neill last night. He loaned the big fan that kept cool air circulating over the wrestlers. He said that he loaned it for O'Neill's special benefit and that it turned the trick.

this show. Then the Japanese tea garden was fine. If Japan can get together as pretty a group of girls in one tea house as the ones who poured for the thirsty ones last night we do not wonder that the tourists rave over them.

And say, did you have your fortune told? If not don't miss it tonight. You can have your palm read by any one from a demure Moorish maiden to a gorgeous Gypsy. The fortune tellers were busy all evening and many is the local swain and maid who wonders how they read their secrets.

The candy and cold drinks ran out before the evening was over but tonight the girls promise to have enough for all. One could either sip delicious punch ladled out by two of old Oregon's sweetest, or could fill up on ice cream or candy sold at other artistically decorated booths.

Take it all in all the carnival last evening was a big success and promises to be a bigger one tonight. The receipts were about $75 and when you remember that everything is only a nickel, half a dime or a jitney, that represents some crowd. If you did not go last night don't miss it tonight and if you did go last night it is certain you will be there again tonight.

BIG CROWD AT SPEED 'EM UP.

and abandoned the longer marathon races made the events of great interest to the contestants.

The weather today was ideal and President Chase Bohnenkamp and Manager Roscoe Neal said that it couldn't have been made to order any better. The board of directors responsible for this year's management are: Chase Bohnenkamp, president of the La Grande Motor club; Ernest E. B. Vehrs, vice-president; Roy B. Currey, secretary; Harley Richardson, treasurer; R. J. Green and David Stoddard, with the officers constitute the executive committee.

The grandstand at the races today was filled with an eager and curious crowd. Many people were present who had never seen the races before. Hundreds of automobiles were parked at vantage points. The whole scene was varied and interesting, and intense excitement prevailed as the different events were run off.

Votes on Bond Issue.

Port Angeles, Wash., July 21.—(United Press)—Port Angeles today is voting on a $20,000 bond issue to pay outstanding debts against the lighting fund and to finance improvements in the municipal system. The municipal plant is paying a profit now, but by the expenditure of $6,926 the city hopes to greatly increase the annual surplus. The municipal lighting system paid a profit of $8,925 last year.

FOREST FIRE SEASON IS HERE

DANGER IS GREAT, FORESTS ARE DRY, PEOPLE SHOULD BE VIGILANT.

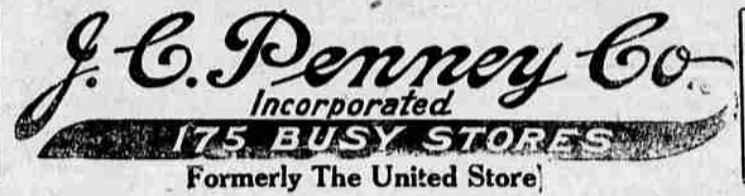

Owing to the recent hot weather, the forests of this County are becoming very dry and the danger of the forest fires at the present time is very great. District Warden, Lowell Williamson, has men in each patrol district. Mt. Emily Lookout Station is in charge of J. E. Fulkerson. From this station all the timbered districts of Union County can be seen. The station is equipped with fire ladders by which the Section, Township and Range where a fire is located is phoned to La Grande. The Cove, Union, and Catherine Creek District is in charge of Patrolman Guy McNear with headquarters at the Hall ranch on upper Catherine Creek. The
