KATHLYN WILLIAMS AND HOUSE PETERS in "THE HIGHWAY OF HOPE" MOROSCO-PARAMOUNT

AT THE ARCADE TODAY AND TOMORROW

ARCADE

KATHLYN WILLIAMS AND HOUSE PETERS IN THRILLING STORY.

The clever Morosco stars, Kathlyn Williams and House Peters, will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow in a picturization of Willard Mack's thrilling story, "The Highway of Hope," which was especially prepared for the screen by Harvey Gates.

Kathlyn Williams as Lonely Lou, the drudge of a mining town, later transformed into a wealthy mine owner, presents a remarkable characterization. In her first appearance on the screen in this production she is seen industriously scrubbing a flight of steps with soap and water. Later, when she has made her fortune, she has a splendid opportunity to display a number of beautiful gowns.

The scenes of "The Highway of Hope" are laid either in the desert or in desert towns and the Morosco company was fortunate enough to find, for use in the picture, one of the famous abandoned mining towns in Death Valley. This town, in the early days of the gold rush, was the home of four or five thousand industrious souls. Men lived, fought and died in its streets and in its gambling holes.

The rush for gold swept on and gradually the citizens rushed away until now there is nothing left but row after row of abandoned buildings which in dry desert air are in a remarkable state of preservation, and which are occupied but occasionally by some "desert rat," who with his pack burrows pauses over night in his journey across the valley to hunt the gold hidden in the distant Panamint mountains. The subsequent scenes of the active mining town were taken on the other side of the range to which the occupants of the first village fled.

The cast supporting Miss Williams and Mr. Peters is one of unusual excellence, including Jim Farley and Harry de Vere.

THE POPULAR HERBSTS ARE COMING TO LAGRANDE FOR A RECITAL

As a special mid-summer attraction extraordinary, is announced that the ever-popular Herbsts are coming to La Grande next week to render a recital. This wonderful duo of musicians are sojourning in Union for the summer and the Epworth League of the Methodist church in this city has shown its enterprise by closing arrangements with Mr. and Mrs. Herbst for a recital commencing at 8:15 Tuesday, July 31. It is unnecessary to go into great detail about the merits of this wonderful couple. The west and particularly Oregon is proud of their ability; in La Grande, for instance, whenever opportunity is given to hear Ina Herbst-Wright or Gottfried Herbst the public is quick to grasp the chance.

Their scintillating career began in the capitals of Europe. There Mrs. Herbst-Wright's wonderful voice talent was developed under the world's best tutors, and her splendid grace and exceptional gifts quickly won for her renown in critical and elite musical circles. Her tours in America have been wonderfully successful. In brief, Ina Herbst-Wright is one of the most sought-after sopranos in the West today.

But her husband is himself an artist—a rare artist. He too has charmed the best musical audience of Europe and in America.

Following are characteristic press comment of the artists:
The violin virtuoso, Herr Herbst of Coburg-Gotha, has proven himself a thorough artist in the big Kursaal concerts, achieving a great success yesterday at the soloists' concert, with his masterly reproduction of the Mendelssohn concerto.—Oberlandisches Volksblatt, Interlakem, Switzerland.

In Herr Herbst, a young violinist of great ability, we have made a very pleasant acquaintance. The ease with which he overcame all obstacles was astonishing. The many chords and octave passages in the Vieuxtemps concerto caused him no difficulty whatever, and his staccato, both in the up and the down strokes, is an acquisition for which many great artists can envy him—many not being able to accomplish it even after years undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Union County, administratrix of the Estate of Hyrum B. Pidcock, deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate, shall present the same duly verified to the undersigned, La Grande, Oregon, or to her attorney W. B. Sargent, Foley Hotel building, La Grande, Oregon, within six months from the date hereof.

Dated La Grande, Oregon, July 16, 1917.

of patient study.—Zeitung, Stockholm, Sweden.

A most delightful song recital was that given at Miss Harker's school yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Mme. Ina Herbst-Wright.

The first number, Schubert's "Ave Maria," sung with a grasp and poise of an artist, assured the audience of a recital of unusual and superior character. Of the succeeding numbers, each one of which had its peculiar charm, perhaps "Die Lorelei" by Liszt for sympathetic interpretation, "Villanelle" by Dell'Aqua for remarkable fluency and clarity of tone, and the aria from "La Traviata" for dramatic effect, stand out especially. The singer graciously responded to several encores.—Daily Palo Alto Times.

Are You One of Them?

There are a great many people who would be very much benefited by taking Chamberlain's Tablets for a weak or disordered stomach. Are you one of them? Mrs. M. R. Searl, Baldwinville, N. Y., relates her experience in the use of these tablets: "I had a bad spell with my stomach about six months ago, and was troubled for two or three weeks with gas and severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Our druggist advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. I took a bottle home and the first dose relieved me wonderfully, and I kept on taking them until I was cured." These tablets do not relieve pain, but after the pain has been relieved may prevent its recurrence.—Adv.

Knocks Out Superstition.

San Francisco, July 21.—(Special)—The old superstition that it is unlucky to start a railroad journey on a Friday can be tucked away with the moth balls. Neither should the numeral "13" have any terrors for the traveler.

W. E. Johnston, excursion agent on the Washington-Sunset Route, has made 938 trips between San Francisco and Washington, covering a period of 17 years and 8 months. He left on Friday 496 times. Moreover, he made one round trip every 13 days, and 13 rounds trips every six months. The total mileage covered during the above period was 3,404,102 miles. On an average of 20 passengers on each trip, Johnston accompanied 18,760 passengers across the Continent. And he is still going!

Doing Good.

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. John F. Jantzen, Delmeny, Sask., says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."—Adv.
