REVIEW OF THE SAN FRANCISCO BOMB MURDER CASE

Chronology of the San Francisco Murder Cases. July 22, 1916—Bomb exploded during Preparedness Parade, killing ten and injuring scores of persons. July 26, 1916—Warren K. Billings and Edw. D. Nolan, labor unionists and Israel Weinberg, jitney driver, arrested, charged with murder. July 27, 1916—Thomas J. Mooney, labor agitator and Mrs. Rena Mooney, his wife, arrested the former for murder, the latter charged with complicity in murder. September 23, 1916—Warren K. Billings convicted of murder. October 8, 1916—Billings sentenced to life imprisonment. February 10, 1917—Thomas Mooney convicted of murder. February 25, 1917—Mooney sentenced to be hanged on May 17. April 18, 1917—Frank C. Oxman, star witness against Mooney arrested on complaint of F. E. Rigall of Grayville, Ill., for suborning perjury. Oxman held to answer to superior court. Stay of execution secured, preventing carrying out life sentence of Mooney. May 21, 1917—Mrs. Rena Mooney placed on trial for complicity in murder. San Francisco, Cal., July 23—United Press)—On July 22, 1916, while thousands were gathered in a demonstration for "preparedness" a bomb explosion at Stuart and Market streets, killed ten people and injured scores of others. The crime sent wave of horror throbbing through the country. Charges of murder were placed against: Thomas J. Mooney, former I. W. W. secretary and labor agitator; Mrs. Rena Mooney, wife of Thomas Mooney—a music teacher; Warren K. Billings, member of the shoe cutters union; Edward Nolan, member of the machinists union and Israel Weinberg, jitney driver. Billings was convicted and sentenced to life in prison. Mooney was tried next, found guilty and sentenced to be hanged. Mrs. Mooney was the third to go to trial. Her case was taken up on May 21. Developments which had followed her husband's conviction focused new attention on the cases. F. E. Rigall of Grayville, Ill., a few weeks before Mooney was to go to the gallows, charged F. C. Oxman, wealthy Oregon cattleman, with attempting to persuade him to give false testimony against Mooney. Oxman's testimony had been vital in Mooney's conviction. The appellate court has been asked to grant Mooney a new trial. During the weeks of Mrs. Mooney's trial, few connected with either side escaped the thrusts, charges and counter charges of the attorneys and labor leaders. The prosecution held Mrs. Mooney and the four other defendants planned the bomb murders to protest against patriotism typified in the preparedness parade; that Warren Billings, Mooney and Mrs. Mooney were driven to Stuart and Market streets by Israel Weinberg in his jitney bus and placed the suitcase containing the infernal machine, on the side walk there. An alibi formed the defense. Two juries heard the evidence, one the official jury, the other a "labor jury." Twelve labor leaders had courtroom seats and followed the same instructions as the regular jurors. They will return labor's verdict. WOMEN WANT UNCLE SAM TO ATTEND HIS KNITTING Washington, July 24.—(United Press)—An organized uprising by the women of the nation against knitting mufflers, mittens, etc., for the navy seems to be forming. These are a few of the hundreds of questions women from all parts of the country are firing at the government every day.
