KILBANE WILL GET ANOTHER CHANCE

BY H. C. HAMILTON.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, July 25.—Johnny Kilbane will get his second chance within a few months at the world's lightweight championship tonight when he meets Benny Leonard in a scheduled six round bout at Philadelphia. This time he will be meeting a new champion, for shortly after Kilbane had outpointed Freddie Welsh, Leonard met the Englishman and knocked him out. Kilbane made a splendid fight against Welsh. He outboxed Welsh, hit him hard, and came out of the mill a winner by long odds. Kilbane's failure to stop the lightweight champion and thus ascend his second throne was the subject of much comment after Leonard won the title. For, it was pointed out, he hit Welsh much oftener than the New York lightweight. The vaunted deadly one-punch carried by Kilbane will be tried to its utmost tonight. Leonard is admittedly an easier man to hit than Welsh. Kilbane will be able to hit him repeatedly. Whether he will be able to find the button and cut short Leonard's career as master of the lightweight division, however, is doubtful, for the bout is too short, and Leonard is capable of caring for himself. The bout should be a thriller. It has as its principals two high-class fighting men. Leonard has never been a disappointing battler, and, while Kilbane has shown very badly in some instances, it cannot be said of him that he ever shirked a task when he was in danger of taking a beating. The sudden ending of Kilbane's bout with George Chaney last Labor Day, when he stopped the knockout king with one heavy blow doesn't bode well for Leonard; although the latter hardly can be classed with Chaney as a boxer.

STRONG FEATURE PICTURE AND KEYSTONE COMEDY AT ARCADE

When "Little Comrade," written by Burton E. Stevenson, was published in Munsey's magazine, it achieved a great success and the film version of the novel entitled "On Dangerous Ground," is certain to achieve an even greater success. "On Dangerous Ground" is the latest World Picture Brady-Made and the stars in this production are Gail Kane and Carlyle Blackwell. This exciting new film will be the attraction at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow.

Starting with this program will be shown also the two reel Special Keystone comedies. The first one is "The Nick of Time Baby" and contains the usual Mack Sennett fun that has made these comedies so popular.

Gloria Swanson, the blacksmith's daughter and Bobby Vernon, the chore boy fall in love with one another. Bobby's uncle leaves him a fortune and the erstwhile chore boy gives a party to his friends and then the fun begins. This comedy and string feature picture will be shown at the Arcade today and tomorrow.

COLONIAL

"THE UNBORN" COMING TO THE COLONIAL THEATRE.

Helen Sanger, the notorious birth control advocate and agitator, would in all probability change her viewpoint on the greatest social problem of the day, if she would attend an exhibition of "The Unborn," the powerful five part feature film, which will be the principal attraction at the Colonial theatre Saturday and Sunday. Carrying a mighty message to every mother and girl, the story reveals the disastrous results entailed by abortion, a practice which is more prevalent in the United States today, than ever before in the history of the country.

The affiliated women's clubs of Spokane, who were represented by a committee of fifty at the initial exhibition of "The Unborn," at the Casino theatre, were unanimous in declaring the production the most powerful version of the much discussed subject they had ever witnessed or heard of.

Despite the fact the picture abounds with thrilling and realistic situations there is not an objectionable scene or an offensive flash throughout the entire five reels.
