Herbert Hoover To The Retail Grocers Of United States. In your section, during the summer months, there will undoubtedly be some excess of fresh vegetables and fruits sent to your market by the farmers who have raised large quantities of such produce at the urgent request of the government. We ask that the retail grocers "do their bit" by setting aside a prominent section of their stores for the handling and display of fresh vegetables and fruits, and push the sale of them during the period in which they come into the market in great quantities; that retail grocers promote the sale of fresh produce to the exclusion, as far as possible, of non-perishable foods.
