lain's Tablets. I took a bottle home and the first dose relieved me wonderfully, and I kept on taking them until I was cured." These tablets do not relieve pain, but after the pain has been relieved may prevent its recurrence.—Adv.

Doctors Are Sufferers.

New York, July 30.—(Special)—Doctors are among the chief sufferers from war. This is due not merely to the high mortality among medical men at the front but to the professional and economic ruin of many who are fortunate enough to return uninjured. The mobilization of the Mexican border last summer illustrated this in many instances.

A New York physician told the other day of a brother practitioner who spent six months at the border with his regiment. He had been successfully practicing for twenty years. He was making over $10,000 a year when he went away.

A few weeks after his return he was met on the street by the friend who told the story.

"For Heaven's sake, lend me a quarter!" he said. "I haven't had a square meal in three days. I lost every one of my patients while I was away and can't get one of them back."

This is an extreme case but it portends what is in a measure a condition that will confront every American doctor who returns from France alive.

Doing Good.

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. John F. Jantzen, Delmeny, Sask., says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."—Adv.

Governor of Texas Indicted.

Austin, Texas, July 30.—(Special)—Governor James M. Ferguson Friday was indicted by the grand jury of this county or nine counts: seven charging misapplication of public funds, one of embezzlement, and one of diversion of public funds. He gave bonds in the sum of $5000 in one case and $1000 in each of the other cases.

ARCADE

LOUISE HUFF AND JACK PICKFORD AT THE ARCADE

The two charming young stars, Louise Huff and Jack Pickford, will be seen at the Arcade Theatre today and tomorrow in Marian Fairfax's photodramatization of Gene Stratton Porter's celebrated novel, "Freckles."

The story is probably one of the most familiar in the English language. As a novel it had a great circulation and later was dramatized and played on the stage. The story is exactly suited to these clever young people who, as co-stars, recently scored such a success in "Great Expectations" and "Seventeen."

The story of "Freckles" has to do with the adventures of an orphan with a withered arm. He runs away from the orphanage and finally secures a position as watchman in the Limberlost, a valuable timber swamp.

How he meets the "Angel," saves his employer's life at the risk of his own, and later nearly loses his own life to save the "Angel," is presented in a most graphic and beautiful manner.

The scenes of this production were filmed in the famous lumber camp district of California and the swamp scenes are identical spent several weeks in the heart of the woods securing these scenes and Jack Pickford nearly lost his life as does the real Freckles of the story.

The production was made for the Lasky Company under the direction of Marshall Neilan and included in the cast besides Miss Huff and Mr. Pickford are such prominent players as Hobart Bosworth, Lillian Leighton, Billy Elmer and Guy Oliver.

Are You One of Them?

There are a great many people who would be very much benefited by taking Chamberlain's Tablets for a weak or disordered stomach. Are you one of them? Mrs. M. R. Searl, Baldwinville, N. Y., relates her experience in the use of these tablets: "I had a bad spell with my stomach about six months ago, and was troubled for two or three weeks with gas and severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Our druggist advised me to take Chamber-

KULOLA'S HAWAIIANS AT ARCADE THEATRE TUESDAY NIGHT

HAWAIIAN SHOW COMING

Kulola's Hawaiians will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre tomorrow night.

The music lovers of this city are assured the treat of the season in the way of a Hawaiian music night. It is a very timely event as the country has suddenly gone mad over Hawaiian music. The Hula Hula dance is seen and the languorous twang of the ukulele is heard in all the out-of-door parks and on the verandas of the big summer hotels. Even Broadway has heard the call of the seductive Island music, and all the important musical comedies, coming out this season from New York have Hawaiian numbers, so the Arcade theatre feels that it is giving its patrons that which is up to the minute in real Native Hawaiian show.

Kulola's Hawaiians, six in number, come perhaps with a better endorsement than any Hawaiians that have played heretofore. In Portland recently, the Morning Oregonian had the following to say about Kulola's Hawaiians:

"It is doubtful if ever an Hawaiian act has won the applause that did Kulola's Hawaiians at the Star Theatre yesterday, for they have more real soloists and more real action and life to this act than seen here in months."

And the Review was concluded by saying:

"This act was staged with elaborate scenery and electrical effects which adds one hundred per cent to the merits and give it the real native atmosphere."

There are five soloists and musicians and a Hula dancer with Kulola's Hawaiians and they are presenting their special musical production, "The Princess of Paradise."
