German Socialists Predict Revolution After The War

BY HENRY WOOD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

With the French Armies, July 6.—(By Mail)—German prisoners, belonging to the Socialist party, and who have been recently captured in the fighting on the French front, declare the Socialists of Germany are merely continuing the war for the purpose of making certain a revolution in Germany afterwards.

One of these socialists who was taken prisoner in the capture of the famous "Dragon's cave" underlying "Lady's road" near Hurtebise on June 25, had just come to the front from the aeroplane factories at Berlin where he had been for some time previously employed. He stated he was a member of the Socialist Democratic party. When asked to state his objects of the war, he gave the novel reply:

"Each belligerent should pay its own costs involved by the war, Belgium included. Alsace and Lorraine should be returned to France." "But why are you then making war?" was the next surprised question.

"Merely to make revolution certain afterwards," was the prompt reply.

The prisoner said he was a subscriber to the "Vorwarts," the German socialists' newspaper, but that he had not received it for some past, as the military authorities no longer allowed it to be delivered to the soldiers, especially at the front.
