life could be prolonged.

Plea For Boys and Girls

Dr. Wells made an especial plea for the boys and girls growing up, urging that cities and school boards should see that they receive the care that they were entitled to when young and helpless. He held that good, pure water, sanitation, quarantine laws, physical training and medical inspection were rights that children should have so that they could grow up strong and healthy and vigorous and a credit to the race, whereas if slight defects were not corrected in childhood the man or the woman might be marred.

Fred B. Currey expressed on behalf of the city, the appreciation of the visit of Dr. Wells and Mr. Sutherland and commented upon the importance of the new policy of the O. W. R. & N. C., in the insurance of its employees. Judge Thomas H. Crawford, spoke of the tremendous importance of making a stand for the improvement of the race and making a fight to prevent its degeneration by vice etc.

Clarke Leiter spoke of the proposed inspection of the school children of La Grande, which Dr. Wells heartily approved.

It is hard to reproduce in cold type Dr. Wells' speech, his magnetism, personality and delightful clear cut English making it exceedingly enjoyable and his visit here will be long remembered. He left this impression vividly with his audience.

Conservation of health is a matter resting in a great measure with the individual. Each one must watch his or her physical condition and should go to the physical machine shop once each year for a careful examination of all the parts of the human machine. The outside should be kept clean by the use of plenty of soap and water. This is far better than relying upon talcum powder for cleanliness. Sleep in the fresh air; don't be afraid of the night air, it can hurt no one. Don't worry. Worry is burning the candle at both ends and is like running the automobile engine while standing still. It uses up fuel, oil and wears the machinery and gets no where.

Incidentally it was learned from the gentlemen composing the party, that since the group insurance went into effect on the O. W. R. & N. C., the first of this year, twenty-one death claims have been settled, the payments averaging over $1000 each. Also some 500 accident and health claims have been adjusted, the total payments being over ten thousand dollars on this account.
