Cove News Notes

The directors of the Shanghai school have been very fortunate in securing Miss Ora Brown as teacher for that district. Miss Brown has successfully taught in the Cove school for several years and has proven her ability not only as an excellent instructor but the influence of her high moral standard has left its imprint upon the minds of both pupils and associates.

Mrs. Le Roy Lantz and son, of Woodburn, Ore., are visiting friends and relatives in Cove.

The ladies of the Cove Red Cross are putting in all their spare moments sewing for the soldiers. All finished articles should be left with Mrs. Hugh McCall, chairman of the military relief committee, where they will be labeled and forwarded to headquarters.

The date for the Cherry Fair has been set for August 15th. An excellent program is being prepared and all arrangements are in full swing under the management of Mr. Elson.

Miss Lura Frame, of Chicago, who has been visiting relatives in Cove returned to her home Wednesday evening.

James Young, of Enterprise, is spending his vacation in Cove picking cherries for J. S. Ogilvie.

The Red Cross held a business meeting at the Baptist church Monday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society will serve a dinner Cherry Fair day.

The Ladies' Guild met with Mrs. Hugh McCall Wednesday to make nightgowns for the Red Cross.

Miss Florence Severs has accepted a position in the Oregon State Library and will leave for Salem on the 15th. Miss Severs is a graduate of the Library School of New York Public Library.

W. H. Browning and family, of Baker, were Cove callers last week. Mrs. Harry Kissinger, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Newcomb, returned to her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Rosson entertained a few friends at their home last week, Wednesday evening.

Cove is already feeling the good effects of her new charter.

Harry Weimer received a letter recently from his father, Simon Weimer, who is visiting at Lajara, Colo., saying the crops there are excellent and requesting that a box of Cove's cherries be sent him.

Rev. and Mrs. E. O. Otts entertained J. M. Younes, wife and daughter, Mrs. Lee Kasidy and granddaughter, Miss Hazel, of North Powder, last week.

R. Z. Baxter and family spent Sunday with friends in Medical Springs.

Spy Harasses Drug Store

An illustration of the continual harassing of business men and the petty spying system that prevails was the fining of the Levy-Vogel Drug Co. Friday, $50 for violating the state law requiring the registration of the sale of certain drugs. The state drug inspector called on all the drug stores, buying cigars or magazines and then as an afterthought asking for a package of antiseptic tablets.

In the Levy Drug Store a registered pharmacist, who had been out of active work for some time and was not familiar with the laws, employed to replace one called to the colors, sold the package and neglected to have the spy sign the book. So the proprietor was arrested and fined. Mr. Levy considers that right now, when all the drug stores are having a hard time to supply the men the them for the war, is a poor time to be spying and harassing them when they are trying to do their best by the country. In the Silverthorne drug store the agent asked for a cigar and a magazine and then asked for a package of antiseptic tablets. When asked to sign the book, he tried to back out of paying for them, but was told to be a good sport and come through when he was caught in the act of spying.

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It

There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.

FILLMORE WILL CASE DECIDED FOR WIFE

Court Rules That Last Will Naming Son, Should Not Be Admitted

Judge E. C. Mills in superior court yesterday decided the Lott Fillmore will case in favor of the wife. The second and last will which was drawn in favor of the son, was not admitted to probate. The court held that the son was not prompted as much by affection for his father as by desire that his stepmother not get the property, when he took care of his father, who made a second will, naming him. During the father's illness and after the son had agreed to care for the father, the court found that he tried to saddle the expense on the G. A. R. The estate is small. The court held that the attorney was not to be censured for drawing up the second and last will.—Walla Walla Bulletin.

Summer Complaint

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unusual looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."

Gold Bricked

Cold tea has gone up in price. A police stool pigeon asked some boys for some "whiskey" last night, offering six dollars for a bottle of it. What he got was just plain cold tea. A very profitable business if one could make it work.
