DOG LAW IS INVALID

Judge Hamilton Holds That It Is Unconstitutional

Roseburg, Or., Aug. 6—(Special)—The new dog law, passed by the last legislature to regulate and license dogs in the country districts, was held to be unconstitutional last week by Judge J. W. Hamilton of this city, in a suit brought by Roy Belows, a merchant.

The law has caused the resignation of about one-third of the constables in this county, who quit rather than enforce the law.

The act was held to be against public policy and against the constitution, inasmuch as all the dogs in the state were not subject to the same license. It is also classed as freak legislation. It provides a tax of $1.50 on male dogs and $3.50 on females in certain counties, and makes the constables liable for its enforcement and requires them to catch the dogs.

Start Fire Without Matches

Port Royal, S. C., Aug. 6—(Special)—How to light a fire without matches is an important part of the training given to United States Marines at this station. The primitive flint and steel, used long ago by our forefathers, and the old "wood friction" method borrowed from the Indians have been revived, so that the sea soldiers may dispense with matches when dampness renders them useless. U. S. Marines in the tropics can start a fire almost instantly by using a hollow piece of bamboo. This is done by slitting the bamboo, stuffing it with dry moss, and drawing a stick to and fro across it as a violinist uses his bow. These resourceful world-wide soldiers are expecting to find a substitute for the useful bamboo, in France.
