C. M. McFetridge, a well known stockman of Enterprise, was registered at the Imperial Hotel, Portland, Sunday.

Mrs. C. R. Steitz and son returned to Eugene last night after visiting here with Mrs. Steitz's mother, Mrs. J. M. McCall.

Mrs. Geo. J. Wagener and children arrived from Enterprise Sunday where they have been visiting Mrs. Wagener's mother.

Mrs. O. Knutzen of Canada, who has been visiting Mrs. N. Nelson here, went to Lostine this morning to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hendrickson.

Mr and Mrs Frank Parsons, Mrs. Hohen, and Mrs. Parson's sister, Miss Hattie Scott, returned last night from a two weeks' auto trip to Portland.

Miss Nellie Steffan, of Payette, Idaho, is visiting her brother, Jaa. Steffan, engineer for the O.-W. R. & N. Co., also Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Range.

Chas. Townley, a graduate in pharmacy, is now employed in Levy-Vogel Drug Store filling the vacancy made by the enlistment of G. H. Lewin in the Hospital Corps.

Dr. Bacon, N. K. West, Walter M. Pierce, F. S. Ivanhoe, and J. F. O'Connell went to Portland last night to attend a meeting of the Boards of Appeal in the draft exemptions.

Loy Wissler, of Pendleton, is here visiting his sisters, Mrs. E. N. Doane and Mrs. Gale Sturdivant. After spending about two weeks here he will go to California for his health.

The fishermen who went to Troy last Sunday are back. They fished in the Little Salmon, and although the water was a little high, they returned with about 250 fish besides having plenty to eat while gone.

Mr. James H. York and Miss Lulu Dalton Beck, both of North Powder, were married this afternoon at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Charles A. Edwards. They will live at North Powder where the groom has business interests.

Mrs. Clarke Leiter, her brother, Ed. Ford, and Chas Stevens of the Arcade Theatre, left this morning for a week's fishing trip on the Wallowa River. They were accompanied by Miss Bee Clair, of Walla Walla, Ted Leiter and Billy Ford.

A. D. Wick, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, was in La Grande today. "Now is the time to go to the Tillamook and Newport beaches," he said. "The weather is cool and delightful, the bathing fine, and all the resorts ready to care for the comfort and amusement of visitors."

The Rev. Upton H. Gibbs returned last evening from his visit in Minnesota. He reports that they had until a week ago, very hot weather, which on account of the humidity, he found very trying. The weather became cooler during the last week, and was quite agreeable. The crops in Minnesota are very favorable, and fair in North Dakota. He came back by way of the Soo R. R. and Canadian Pacific. The crops in Alberta are short, owing to the prolonged drouth, but recent rains have helped. Mrs. Gibbs will remain in Minnesota until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trull, of the Sherry's Theater are the proud parents of an eleven-pound boy born Monday morning, August 6. If the little fellow had been born a day sooner he would have been a very appropriate birthday gift, as his grandfather, who is the manager of the Sherry's Theater, celebrated his birthday on that day. The baby has been named Edward Gordon after his two grandfathers.

N. Nelson left this morning for San Francisco to visit his son, Arthur, who is an electrical engineer in the postoffice there. While away he will also visit in other parts of California.

Zoe Bragg Spinning and D. J. McClellan were married on Monday, July 23rd, at Seattle, Washington and are now making their home in Portland. The bride is very well known here, being the daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. E. E. Bragg, and a very popular young lady here. The groom is a civil engineer and was formerly connected with the railroad offices here, but is now with a ship building concern in Portland.
