Personal And Society

Miss Ruth Winters and Miss Violet Rush went to Austin Monday to spend a week or so with Miss Rush's father who is in charge of some work there.

Ray Logan looks quite nifty in his $10.85. He says he is going to keep out of the rain, (when we get some again) and he even refuses to sprinkle the lawn for fear of shrinkage.

The case against the Chinese arrested in the supposed opium raid has been dismissed for the reason that Mr. Jeffries the man who made the raid, went to Baker yesterday and wired over this morning that he would dismiss the case.

City Engineer Neal returned from Wallowa last night where he conferred with the City Council of Wallowa relatives to the proper platting of the water system of that town and also to possibility of putting in a sewerage system there.

Among the Union and Wallowa merchants attending Buyers' Week in Portland are the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. O. Hara, Elgin; F. L. Lilly, La Grande; W. A. Hudelson, North Powder; John P. Hodgkin, Clint Van Fleet, La Grande; Ehrman Hall, Union; Robert M. Sterl, Enterprise.

Park-keeper "Tap" Thomas and Mrs. Thomas are away on their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. John McEwan are occupying the lodge at the park during their absence.

LETTERS FROM THE FRONT.

(The following letter was received by Mrs. W. G. Fitzgerald, 1903 Third Street, from her son Creighton, who while visiting his sister in Canada enlisted in the Canadian army and has been in France since October, of last year: 7-8-1917.

Dear Mother:—I received your most welcome letters and was glad to hear from you; always address me to the 7th Can. Inf. Batt. British Exp. Fco. You ought to plant all the seed you can. Yes I compose French pretty good now, enough to make myself understood. I would like to write you all about the regiment but it is not permissible. About the "scrap", it was an extra large one, over leaf is a bit of poetry made up about it.

The Fall of Vimy.

The Hun on Vimy Ridge mounted his hold, And Hun-like in a brazen voice and bold Boasted from this place could not be hurled By all the Canuks of the western world. But in the hearts of Canada's brave sons Was deep contempt for all the race of Huns; And on the grim appointed day and hour, Made fierce assault upon that vaunted power. Dull was the dawn upon that famous day, Close were we massed and eager for the fray; A whistle sounds, a signal loud and clear Reaches at last our strained expectant ear; And as we rise the signals to obey, All heaven and earth are rent beneath the sway Of mighty guns belching their thunderous doom, Blasting the Huns beyond their endless tomb.

This "scrap" was one of the most crushing defeats ever inflicted on the enemy. Well, remember to always address me to the 7th Batt. Canadian B. E. F. I must close with love to all, I remain, your loving son. CREIGHTON.

Summer Complaint

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unusual looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results." Adv.—8-1-17
