FEW POOR SHORTSTOPS IN THE BIG LEAGUES

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Aug. 7—Good shortstops, instead of being a scarce article, as so often has been the case in recent years, are prevalent in both big leagues. A sudden attack of aggravated shortstops seems to have assailed both major circuits. One of them, Kopf of the Reds, is getting very small attention these days, but he is hitting .250 and fielding sensationally. His batting average has been better than Donie Bush's and no one yet has called Bush a poor shortstop. Connie Mack has two excellent shortstops in Dugan and Witt. Neither is much force as a hitter right now, but either is likely to improve in that department. Witt graduated from high school to wear his major league spangles. Fletcher, Maranville, and Olson are now veterans. Even Olsen is playing a fine game this year. Bancroft is a star and so is Rogers Hornsby. Chuck Wortman of the Cubs is as brilliant a fielder as the major leagues hold. Ward of the Pirates is another demon fielder.

Right down the line with Risberg Peckinpaugh, Rush, Chapman, Lavan Scott, Witt, Dugan and Shanks: They're all high class, and it will take high-speed men to dislodge any one of them.

Ty Cobb is having one of his greatest years—at a time when most outfielders are laying away the glove and uniform. He's at the top of the American league in hitting and traveling at a pace that Tris Speaker nor anyone else is likely to excel.

When Cobb is through they'll try for his mark for many years to come. Baseball never will see many Cobbs—perhaps none.

The veteran Earl Neale—oil in the vernacular of the Bronx—is a Cincinnati sensation. He is hitting with the cleft and fielding in his old style. Environment and the pep of winning apparently are responsible.

MAMAUX SUSPENSION SOME VINDICATION OF CALLAHAN

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Aug. 11—When Hugo Bezdek, new manager of the Pirates, suspended Al Mamaux, he gave partial vindication, at least, of the measures taken by Jimmy Callahan to put something into the Pittsburgh club.

Callahan was pilloried extensively for disciplining the temperamental star, was declared Callahan did not know how to handle Mamaux and that George Gibson, now with the Giants, was the only man who could get any work out of the youngster.

It is being directly charged now that Mamaux is and has been playing for his release. He is not trying to win, it is stated, because he figures he eventually will be transferred to some other club, preferably the Giants. Evidently there is no chance of such a transfer, for John McGraw recently went out and pulled off a trade for Al Demaree, adding a mediocre right hander to his staff. If he could have obtained Mamaux he doubtless would have done so.

Despite the fact that Joe Welling is generally recognized as the logical man to meet Benny Leonard in his first real championship bout with a lightweight, there is small chance of the boys getting together unless Welling changes managers.

There is a feud of long standing between Billy Gibson, manager of the lightweight champion, and Jimmy Johnson, who directs the affairs of Welling.

When Leonard met and defeated Freddie Welsh, winning the lightweight championship, Johnson gave out a statement declaring that Leonard did not and could not weigh 133 pounds. This statement was contradicted, not only by Gibson and Leonard, but by Welsh's manager, who said Leonard weighed just what was announced.

This didn't help any to clear away the clouds between Gibson and Johnson, and they seem just as far apart as they ever were. The logical guess is that Johnny Dundee will be sent against the New Yorker, although he is hardly fitted more than several other boys.

Frankie Callahan, the Brooklyn lightweight, also wants a chance at the title. It is doubtful if Callahan would have a chance for victory in
