R. J. Kitchen was in High Valley Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Ward went to Meacham this morning for a few days.

Mr. Frank Conner of the Golden Rule has gone to the mountains for a few days' camping.

Nora Arbuckle took pity on the Fire Company's mascot cat this morning and gave it a bath.

Harley Richardson is out of the store for a day or two on account of having eaten too much sweet stuff.

City manager Fred Curry and Water Supt. L. M. Hoyt went on a fishing trip to Beaver Creek this morning.

Harvey Street, material checker for the O. W. R. & N. Co., has returned from several days' vacation spent in Portland.

Mrs. Marjorie Francis returned to her home in Illinois tonight after spending six weeks here. She is a daughter of Mrs. J. M. McCall and a sister of Mrs. Archie Bacon and Mrs. U. G. Couch.

Deer Hide and Horns on Display
Last deer season Will Wright killed a 325 pound deer, and he has brought the hide in to Shannon's Harness Shop to be tanned and prepared for a rug. The horns and hide are on display in the window of Mr. Shannon's store. Some might call it a ten point buck, but Mr. Wright claims the honor of getting a twelve point, which in itself is a very rare occurrence. There are ten large points and then two smaller ones right over the eyes. Those who know say it is what is called a twelve point buck.

FIVE U. S. GUNNERS INSTEAD OF FOUR HELD BY GERMANS

Washington, Aug. 16.—(United Press)—Five American gunners instead of four, on board the Campana, were made prisoners when the vessel was sunk by submarines, the navy department announced officially.

KANSAS GOVERNOR WILL MAKE PERSONAL APPEAL

Chicago, Aug. 16.—(United Press)—Governor Capper, of Kansas, leaves for Chicago tonight to make a personal appeal to the President of the Federal Trade Commission for the government to take over the Federal mines and immediately establish impartial prices. He made the statement to the Interstate Coal Conference this afternoon.
