News Of La Grande

Youngs Expected Back—Mr. and Mrs. George Young are expected home today from their trip East.

Another Recruit—The recruiting officer here sent another man to Portland last night for final examination. The new recruit is Clifford George.

Volunteer Firemen Meet—The La Grande Volunteer Firemen held their regular monthly meeting at the fire station last night.

Chief Has Poor Luck—Fire Chief C. L. Mackey returned from a fishing trip to Wallowa yesterday. He reports a fine trip but muddy water and few fish.

Take Fishing Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pike spent yesterday fishing in the Grande Ronde. They brought back a good mess of fish they report.

Return To Tacoma—Mrs. H. Clark Miller, son Earl and daughter, Portia, who have been visiting Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Ellen Griffin, and brother, C. H. Griffin, have returned to their home in Tacoma.

Return From Camping Trip—The Misses Sarah and Miriam Smith, Runa Bacon and Dorothy Meyers returned yesterday from their camping trip in the mountains. They report having had a glorious time.

Find Few Huckleberries—Mr. and

Mrs. J. G. Holm, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Disqua and Mrs. Stachfield went huckleberrying beyond Mt. Fannie Sunday. They didn't find many berries, but filled their buckets with choke cherries.

Threshing Season On—County Agriculturist Paul Spillman reports that threshing of winter grain is going on at full blast all over the county. He states that very few are harvesting as much as thirty bushels an acre, which is quite a little below the usual yield.

O. A. C. Man Here—Mr. Paul Mares state leader of county agents of Oregon, of the Oregon Agricultural College, who has been going over Eastern Oregon to note the progress of the work along agricultural lines, spent the day Monday here with County Agriculturist Paul Spillman.

Visitors in La Grande—Mr. B. H. German and Mr. D. E. Nicholson of Walla Walla are spending a few days in La Grande enroute to Wallowa Lake Park. Mr. German is a Parole Officer at the State Penitentiary at Walla Walla, and Mr. Nicholson is the bertillon expert there.

Portland People Arrive—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Specht, of Portland, arrived here yesterday morning in their auto. They left Portland Sunday forenoon and expected to arrive here by about eleven o'clock Monday night, but they got on the wrong road somewhere between here and Pendleton which delayed them several hours. Mrs. Specht is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Neill, and they expect to visit here for a week or ten days before going father east.

Mattice—Stansfield Nuptials—Miss Lois Mattice and Dewey Stansfield were quietly married at the Presbyterian Manse yesterday afternoon by the Rev. G. L. Clark in the presence of Mrs. Clark and Miss Florence Stansfield, sister of the groom. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. J. Mattice, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Stansfield. Both are popular members of the younger set of La Grande. For the present they will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Stansfield on Y. Ave.

Spiker-Rynearson Nuptials—Last Thursday evening Miss Jessie Spiker and Lemuel Rynearson were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Spiker on Fir St., Bishop Black of the L. D. S. church officiating. The couple were unattended, and the bride wore a gown of white crepe de chene. Only close relatives and immediate friends were present. After the ceremony ice cream and cake were served. Those present were: Harry Rynearson, Misses Ruth and Helen Fitzgerald, Mrs. Chris Wright, Mrs. Fulton, Chas. Spiker, Miss Erna Spiker, Mrs. Sarah Spiker 'Mr. and Mrs. Chit Wood, Miss Vera Houghton, Hiram Hendricks and Miss Bell Dahlstrom.

Returned From Extended Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and children returned last week from an extended auto trip through central and western Oregon. They left here July 16, going through Portland and down to Salem. They visited for some time with Mrs. Miller's father and brother in the Polk County hills about eight miles from Salem. They also visited on the coast at Tillamook, Rockaway and Twin Rocks. Mr. Miller reports the roads in Tillamook County some of the best in the State. He says they had the worst roads on their whole trip between here and Pendleton. By the time they had reached home they had traveled 1189 miles. On their way home they witnessed an accident which might have turned out seriously. Between Cascade Locks and Hood River they met two machines on a narrow grade and Mr. Miller turned out to let them pass, stopping his machine. After they had passed he could not get his machine started again. Some time later three machines came along and offered assistance. While they were talking a fourth machine started down the hill, and

MUST BE SOLD
 A one story frame dwelling 36x50 feet, consisting of 7 rooms and bath, has front and rear porch. Lot 60x110 feet with plenty of large shade trees and a few fruit trees, very close to business, perfect title all for $650. No one can make the improvements for less than $2500. The lot alone is worth the money I ask. My former years real estate business usually with the anti-Prohis as I found them less hidebound, but as Oregon is dry and the anti-Prohis discouraged, some left, others prepared to leave if possible; therefore I do appeal to the Prohis to open their purse. We sell vacant lots from $50.00 up. A 5 room dwelling for $100. Have many
