FULTON-MORRIS GO WILL BE REAL ELIMINATION

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, Aug. 23.—When Carl Morris and Fred Fulton meet in Ohio Labor Day in a fust battle over the fifteen round route all their squabbles over who is the better man should be settled. With a decision attached to the agreement, and with the go extending over the modest ten rounds someone should be eliminated with little trouble, and the chances of a foul to either man will be greatly lessened.

Fulton must be given credit for having plenty of nerve—at least outside of the ring. Whether that requisite remains with him after he has entered the roped arena is something Morris has been prone to question. That's something else that will be brought out in their forthcoming battle.

Morris, the original white hope, will be made or ruined by this effort. Almost the same extreme awaits Fulton, but he is much younger at the game than Morris and would have less trouble clambering back to favor.

Of all the heavyweights now in the game there isn't a one who stands as high in the public eye as Fulton. That he is the logical man to meet Jess Willard for the world's championship is conceded by most critics. He has, however, the stigma of a defeat at the hands of Morris, which must be wiped out before he can hope to force the big champion into a match. And, if he succeeds in getting Morris out of the way, it is probable that Willard still will demand a meeting with Frank Moran, the Pittsburg heavyweight.

Tex Rickard believes the time has come for promoters to lay aside their efforts to bring boxers together and fly into the war with all their punch. "People are not going to fights," said Tex recently. "The war is taking up too much of their time and too much of their money. I don't believe in trying to get the fight dollars while such a war is in progress. I have no intention of trying to stage a big fight now and probably will never make another effort unless the war soon ends."

INDIANS PREDICT RED SOX COLLAPSE

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, Aug. 23.—According to members of the Cleveland American league club the Red Sox are in a state bordering on collapse. The pennant, they believe, cannot go to Boston this year, and they predict a complete reversal of form by the champions.

One member of the Indians put it like this: "The Red Sox are failing to take advantage of things they would have turned to their credit a year ago. The club is not hitting and the fielding is getting ragged. In addition Ruth is the only consistently effective pitcher.

"Some folks are inclined to lay a great deal of stress on George Foster's one-hit game against it recently, but the fact of the matter is we should have beaten him badly. Every ball hit was driven hard, but always directly at some fielder. Foster's pitching will not give the Red Sox much help, regardless of what you hear.

Whether the trouble is due to squabbles on the club I can't say, but I predict and so does every other member of this club that the Red Sox will fade away before the season is over." The Cleveland ball player may be right, but he is taking a long shot to predict the collapse of the Red Sox. Things just as startling have happened, but they are rare occasions. The Red Sox are good enough to be in the fight all the way.

With the pitching staff that graces the payroll in Boston the Indians would have a pennant possibility without any argument. And, if the White Sox and Red Sox were to switch pitching staffs the Red Sox would undoubtedly glide toward the bottom.

A Philadelphian is trying hard to bring about a baseball game that will send all the old Athletics of palmy days into the field against John McGraw's great team of Giants. Collins, Baker, Barry, Plank, Coombs, Murphy, Bender, Lapp, Penhock, and Shawkey are still playing ball. McInnis, Strunk, Schang and Bush are still with the Athletics. The game easily could be arranged. The pseudo promoter wants to give the proceeds to the Red Cross.
