SESSUE HAYAKAWA AT THE ARCADE

In one of the most unusual of the he has startling photodrama in which he has appeared, Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow in the Lasky-Paramount production, "The Jaguar's Claw," by Beatrice C. de Mille and Leighton Osmun from an adaptation by Roswell Dague of William M. McCoy's story.

As the bandit Hayakawa captures two American girls and the young American old field manager who is the bridegroom of one of the girls and the brother of the other one. Having the three in his power, El Jaguar gives the man the right to take one of the girls into safety, but the other must remain with him. The young American is at a loss what to do; whether to leave his young sister to the mercy of the bandit, or his bride of a few days.

How the problem is solved is brought about in a most startling and unusual manner. Needless to say a play of this unusual theme, with Sessue Hayakawa as the bandit, abounds in gripping incidents.

The major portion of the picture was filmed in the exact locality in which the scenes of the story are laid, the Lasky Company having received permission from the Mexican commander who was at that time in charge to spend several days in the interior. But they nearly caused a breach in neutrality by bringing a hundred cowboys over the border to take part in the raid on a Mexican town. The Lasky Company had rented the town for the day from the local Jeffe, or mayor, who had failed to notify all the residents; consequently when the Americans swooped down through the streets, firing revolvers, great confusion ensued but fortunately no serious damage was done. In the supporting cast are Tom Moore, Marjorie Daw, Tom Forman, Mabel Van Buren, Lucien Littlefield, and Horace B. Carpenter. The production was made for the Lasky Company under the direction of Marshall Neilan.

KERENSKY'S MOVEMENT FORMERLY RECORDED BY SECRET POLICE

BY W. G. SHEPHER (United Press Staff Correspondent) Petrograd, July 16.—(By mail)—A brave bank clerk has made himself the friend of War Minister Kerensky for life.

When the mobs were carrying off the revolution in Petrograd, the police stations were fired.

The crowds believing the fires to have been started by revolutionaries, joined in the firemaking with heart and soul. No one seemed to realize that the records of the Black Hundred would be of more use in existence than in a state of ashes. Any attempts of souvenir-seeking onlookers to seize any of the documents from the bonfires met with resistance from the crowds, who were urged on to this by the detectives and provocators.

Kerensky's new friend was in a crowd around one of the great fires. Among a batch of books and papers which he saw dumped into the blaze was a dossier marked Kerensky. He seized this and, in spite of the efforts of the crowd to take it from him, he made a speech that persuaded them that the Kerensky record ought to be saved. Though Kerensky, at that time, was famous, he was by no means the idol he has since become.

Recently the bank clerk presented the dossier to Kerensky. It consisted of several hundred pages and showed that the secret police had been following him night and day for six months.

FEDERAL GRAIN INSPECTION MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

I have just received a letter from L. W. Jeffers, Federal Grain Supervisor, which reads in part as follows:

"In connection with the federal supervision of grain inspection, as provided for in the United States Grain Standards Act, this office is desirous of enabling the farmers, warehousemen and grain dealers to become familiar with the provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary for its enforcement."

"In order to assist in this work, Mr. H. A. Martin, grain supervisor from this office, will spend the next ten days in Eastern Oregon, for the purpose of meeting and talking with the interested parties. Mr. Martin will be in La Grande Monday, Aug 27th, being able to spend the entire day and evening in your city."

Arrangements have been made to hold the meeting at the City Hall in La Grande at 8 p. m. This is the best opportunity for local farmers to learn as to the details of Federal Grain Inspection and all should make it a special point to be present as well as all other parties that are in any way interested in the grain crops of the country.

G. A. R. Reunion.

Boston, Aug. 24.—(United Press)—Following a business session in Symphony Hall yesterday, members of the G. A. R. here for the national reunion, were taken in automobiles to various places of interest in and about the city. Lexington, Concord and other historical towns were visited.

The general business of the reunion over, the veterans are taking the opportunity to go sightseeing. The shore resorts nearby are proving a strong attraction.

Chronic Constipation

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.

Rustling Card Causes Trouble

Butte, Mon., Aug. 24.—"If the trouble in Butte has no other foundation than the rustling card, it should be settled at once."

This today is the opinion of Congressman Evans, as expressed in a telegram sent Tom Campbell, of the Metal Mine Workers' union.

"The people want peace, order and prosperity in Butte and the state," Representative Evans continues. "If you can give assurance that these conditions will follow I will be pleased to use my best efforts to abolish the system or anything in my power."
