PORTLAND MARKET LETTER

August 23, 1917

The volume of business has continued to flow rather strong throughout the week in all departments. Especially has this been true in stock and feeder lines of the cattle pens and hog alleys. Today's receipts are about 300 cattle, 700 hogs and 100 sheep.

Cattle
There have been some indications of slowness in the cattle movements, but activities have developed somewhat as the day advanced. The quotations of the day follow:
Best beef steers 8.25 to 8.75; Good beef steers 7.00 to 8.00; Best beef cows 6.00 to 7.00; Ordinary to good cow 3.50 to 5.50; Best heifers 6.25 to 7.25; Bulls 4.50 to 6.00; Calves 6.50 to 9.25; Stocker and Feeder steers 4.50 to 7.00.

Hogs
The hog alleys faced a slight decline in all departments as the day developed. There was a large supply of stock and feeder hogs offered on the market and sales lowered to 16 cents for the bulk. Only a small volume of killing hogs business was transacted at a decline of 25 cents from the earlier part of the week. The following quotations obtained:
Prime light 17.75 to 18.00; Prime heavy 17.75 to 18.00; Pigs 16.50 to 17.00; Bulk 17.75.

Sheep
The market of the day afforded considerable fluctuation in the sheep department which seemed to be for the most part on the opposite end of the market from the hogs. There is an active demand for all classes of wethers. The following prices will indicate the nature of activities:
Western lambs 12.00 to 13.00; Valley lambs 11.75 to 12.50; Yearlings 10.00 to 10.50; Wethers 9.75 to 10.25; Ewes 8.00 to 8.50.

SHOE TIPS

Here's a tip that's worth remembering—A cheap shoe is never economical and especially is this so in these times of adulterated shoes. There is no part of your wearing apparel upon which you must depend on the word of your retailer regarding actual value, as in footwear. A little cheapening here and there can hardly be detected until you begin to wear them, but it soon becomes very apparent and you realize that you have wasted money—not saved.

YOU CAN ABSOLUTELY DEPEND ON OUR FOOTWEAR as we carry only dependable shoes—not cheap shoes—for quality must be first in every department of this R. C. U. Store.
