MAXWELL ONE-TON TRUCK

The Maxwell Truck is a real truck, not a converted passenger car.

The specifications include a heavy pressed steel frame; Timken-David Brown worm and gear drive; Timken roller bearings; dropped forged I-beam front axle; designed for generous overload stresses; rugged rear axle housing, with worm and axle shafts of specially heat-treated alloy steel; heavy spring steel semi-elliptic springs, designed to overcome any road shock, and artillery type wheels with steel rims and solid tires.

The Maxwell One-Ton Truck has all the features and equipment that have proved their superiority within the experience of this company as well as other truck builders.

The uses to which this truck can be put are almost limitless. Retailers, wholesalers, manufacturing concerns—in fact, nearly every business house in the country, as well as thousands of farmers, are finding in the Maxwell Truck an efficient and economical means of transportation.

FANNIE WARD AT THE ARCADE TODAY AND TOMORROW

The ever-popular star of the stage and screen, Fannie Ward, will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow in the Lasky-Paramount production of "Her Strange Wedding," especially prepared for the screen by Charles Maigne from George Middleton's popular story.

Fannie Ward, has proved herself to be the most versatile of the screen's feminine artists, striking into the hearts of the public as she did by her wonderful performance in "The Cheat" where she has always remained. In "Her Strange Wedding," Miss Ward is given a drama of unusual interest and appeal.

The story is that of a wealthy young society girl who is in love with a doctor, whose brother appears after having committed a theft in the East and steals from the doctor the affections of the girl. How they are married and the bridegroom is caught in another theft, is brought about in a startling manner, the brother attempting to murder the doctor is himself stricken and the doctor and the girl are united. The suspense is maintained throughout and the production is one of unusual lavishness. Miss Ward is given an opportunity to display many of her wonderful gowns, among them being the latest mode in a wedding dress.

The incidents connected with the house party scenes leading up to the wedding were participated in by a number of well known society people.

The cast supporting Miss Ward is one of unusual excellence, including such well known players as Jack Dean, Tom Forman and Billy Elmer.

The production was made for the Lasky-Paramount Company under the direction of George Melford.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD, AT THE ARCADE NEXT SUNDAY

The co-operation of America's most famous and widely read story writer, Harold Bell Wright, with W. H. Clune, associate producer of "The Clansman" and the expenditure of several months' labor at unlimited cost, give credence to the claim that "The Eyes of the World", which comes to the Arcade theatre on Sunday next, is one of the great film ventures of the times.

Sold in book form to more than one million buyers, "The Eyes of the World" now comes in visual form with all its romance, gripping adventures and scenic settings, intensified by the dramatic camera.

The new production recently had its premiere in Los Angeles, played for several solid weeks in the big Auditorium theatre, the largest west of Chicago, to more than 75,000 people, breaking all theatre records of the Pacific coast. For this production the author amplified his story and actively assisted in the day-by-day work of interpreting his characters for the screen.

Among the well remembered people whose experiences hold audiences in a spell are Willard, the convict; Oakley, the forest ranger; Sibyl, the mountain girl; Mrs. Taine, the fashionable temptress; Mr. Taine, the wealthy rake; King, the artist; Rutledge, the bull-necked art critic and others.

If you are a smart man, honor the old folks and remember that they were on the ground first.—Pittsburg Post.
