court play, a point that Murray has neglected so long that it was difficult for him to perfect the low, sinking volleys just over the net and at the feet of an opponent. He finally mastered it, however, and surprised his audience when he met Nathaniel W. Niles at this game and beat him at it.

Niles is a survivor of the old English method of play, personified in a number of internationalists who have played on American courts. He depends wholly on an ability to accurately send his return shots over, relying on Murray or any other opponent to finally smash a drive into the net or out of bounds. It was through this style of play that he was able to down Williams, but found a new style in Murray, who alternated an excellent back court game with a dashing return from the net, and a passing point from the latter position when the opportunity presented itself.

Experience the Best Teacher.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad of St. Louis, Mo., has devoted the June number of its official publication, "The Agents' Bulletin," to an elaborate and pictorial presentation of Oregon and other parts of the Northwest. Although the nearest this railroad company comes to the territory it has thus exploited is 1200 miles, it regards as good business an effort to call the attention of its patrons to a country so rich in interest and resources.

People Speak Well of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have been selling Chamberlain's Tablets for about two years and hear such good reports from my customers that I concluded to give them a trial myself, and can say that I do not believe there is another preparation of the kind equal to them," writes G. A. McBride, Headford, Ont. "If you are troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They will do you good."

MURRAY ABLE HOLDER OF SINGLES TITLE

By H. C. HAMILTON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 10—Robert Lindley Murray, the new tennis champion, despite the fact that the United States association isn't going to call him that, is a regular champion, even if he does part his name in the middle.

R. Norris Williams did that, and even Maurice E. McLoughlin had difficulty convincing new opponents he was a tough guy with his service.

Murray, California product, is upholding the Pacific Coast's brilliant record at the court game, showed an enthusiastic crowd at Forest Hills that he was about the nearest approach to McLoughlin the tennis fans ever have seen. While his service doesn't carry the accuracy McLoughlin was able to get into his forceful drives he gets fully as much speed, and a shot into the court almost always is good for an ace.

At the net game, where McLoughlin himself was rated a star, it may be said that Murray has no equal. He is the embodiment of grace at the net. McLoughlin's range of play at this point made it possible for him to serve, dash to the net and finish off his points from there. It was always believed there never would be another tennis player who could meet him at that game, but it is doubtful if the Comet would have shown better at this particular style of play than did Murray in the recent tournament.

McLoughlin also was good at back

Has a High Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have a high opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets for biliousness and as a laxative," writes Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Charleston, Ill. "I have never found anything so mild and pleasant to use. My brother has also used these tablets with satisfactory results."
