Talk about a dirty bunch; we certainly are it. Part of us took a bath in the "Y" at Chicago 3ets. Had no clean clothes with us. Nearly all our grub is gone. I have part of the cake left. Say, that celery sure hit the spot.

We had 2 mishaps. One fellow lost $200 out of a window and another his pants and watch. They are following along behind.

Just got a look at the sky line. Quite a sight. Don't look very high tonight; they better look bigger next time or I will be disappointed.

Chicago looks pretty good. I never saw such crowded streets in my life. Every crossing had a traffic cop on it. The streets were absolutely massed with people. There was no room to stand.

If I can see a baseball game before we leave, I will be satisfied. The worlds' series will be in New York.

Got located in camp alright. Will write more later.

Your Son,
OTIS W. PALMER.

Mc Graw Fine Is A Warning And Precedent

By H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Sept. 11.—In fining John J. McGraw an additional $1,000 for allowing an attack on President John K. Tener to be printed as coming from him, the National league set a precedent here that it will find to be extremely helpful to it in the future. By showing a backbone and a desire to begin quashing all attacks on administration of the league the directors will find it much easier to curb outbursts in the future.

Tacked on to the bottom of the lengthy statement in which the directors answered the request of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America was a warning to managers and other employees of the league that future occurrences in which the head of the league or the league is made the victim of an attack suspension for the rest of the season will be a minimum punishment. There is at least one manager in the National league, and several players who never have had any hesitancy in showing some contempt for the way things have been done in the league. They doubtless will be curbed.

It has been customary for baseball followers in the east to poke some fun at the National leagues calling it grandmother and other similar names. They have been accustomed to pointing to the American league as the virile, czarlike exponent of capital punishment in the baseball world. The staggering punishment meted out to McGraw, however, is direct proof that the last days of President Tener in the older circuit are going to be flavored with some distinctly czarlike actions.

The edict absolved the baseball writers from any blame in connection with the episode that first resulted in a meeting of the directors and what amount to a formal apology from McGraw. He declared he did not make any such statement as those attributed to him, and left the writers to hold the sack.

The incident was reopened at the request of the writers, and while the last decision admits it was not proven McGraw actually attacked the president with the words attributed to him, he was fined and reprimanded for having allowed the interview to be printed when it would have been easy for him to suppress it.

A Valuable Health Hint.

If the bowels are not working regularly, undigested food in the stomach may set up a condition of auto-intoxication and pollute the whole system with poisons in the blood stream. Foley Cathartic Tablets keep the bowels open and regular, the liver active and the stomach sweet. They cause no pain, nausea nor griping. They relieve indigestion, sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath or other conditions caused by clogged bowels. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

County Fair Pays Dividends; Others Gasp

Spokane, Sept. 12.—(Special)—Dividend checks of $1 per share are being received by members of the Lincoln and Adams County Pioneer and Historical Society and the promoters of every other fair in the Pacific northwest are gasping for breath. Such a condition is almost unheard of—certainly in eastern Washington where fairs and expositions give such big shows with such expensive attractions that a deficit is always expected.

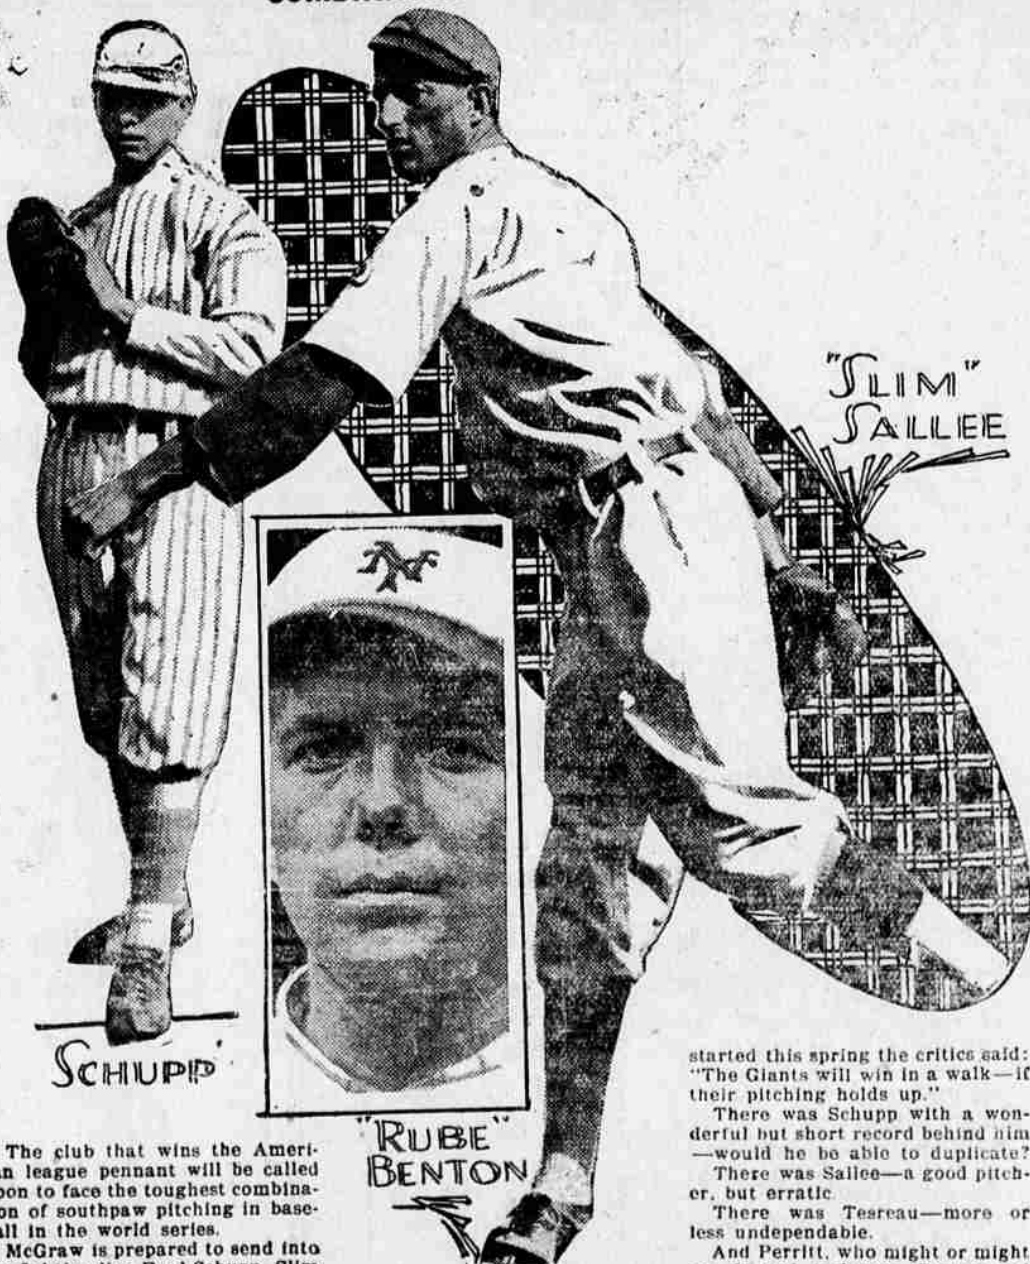

Fifteen years ago the association which now makes such a fine showing bought its grounds on Crab creek in Lincoln county for $930. Improvements were made every year and the association owed nearly $7000 in 1911. Careful management and faithful work by volunteer promoters resulted in the whole debt being wiped out by the end of 1916 and now the association has $1700 surplus on hand, from which the dividend is being paid.

home and be laughed at and immediately stumbles upon a most amazing adventure. This need not be fully explained here, but the manner in which she is enabled to step into a fortune and to announce that she is the widow of the man whose name is on the marriage license she owns, is anything but commonplace. In the latter part of the story, where the

VINNER IN AMERICAN LEAGUE MUST FACE TOUGHEST SOUTHPAW COMBINATION IN BASEBALL

The club that wins the American league pennant will be called upon to face the toughest combination of southpaw pitching in baseball in the world series. McGraw is prepared to send into the fighting line Ferd Schupp, Slim Sallie and Rube Benton, a southpaw aggregation not equalled by any club in either league. They are his three best pitching bets. It has been their work that has kept the Giants way out ahead of the field in the National league and it is on them he will depend to bring home a second world's championship to the Polo Grounds. When the National league race started this spring the critics said: "The Giants will win in a walk—if their pitching holds up."

There was Schupp with a wonderful but short record behind him—would he be able to duplicate?

There was Sallie—a good pitcher, but erratic.

There was Teareau—more or less dependable.

And Perritt, who might or might not do and Anderson, Benton and Middleton.

It was a pitching staff that put a big IF in the Giants' chances to win.

How they came through is now an old story.
