"The Eyes Of The World" At The Arcade Tomorrow

To the thousands of book readers who know the tense dramatic interest and deep emotional thrill of Harold Bell Wright's famous story of love and adventure, "The Eyes of the World," it will be welcome news that a magnificent motion picture production of the romance in ten reels. Will be seen here at the Arcade theatre, tomorrow for one day only.

The book, as is well known, has enjoyed an enormous popularity, having been read, according to the publishers, by more than 4,000,000 people, but the film and musical spectacle created from it is declared to surpass the written version in every way.

The Clune Company has to its credit many notable achievements in these lines. Working differently from any other producers, it concentrates the entire energies of its forces on one thing at a time, sparing no expense or labor in the execution of a finished work.

The fight on the cliff in "The Eyes of the World," between King and Rutledge, which is the major climax of the story, is said to be one of the most thrilling things ever shown in a theatre. A musical score has been prepared for "The Eyes of the World" which is said to be the second with every mood of the unfolding tale and is said to be a symphonic drama in itself.

"The Eyes of the World" was filmed with the active personal assistance of the author, who not only amplified the story for the screen and prepared the working scenario, but also took part in the day-by-day work of interpreting his characters for the production.

STAR

WILLIAM S. HART AS
"THE SQUARE DEAL MAN"

Tonight at the Star Theatre Wm. S. Hart in the "Square Deal Man," will be the attraction.

This will be the opening of the old Colonial Theatre which has been closed the past month. Many repairs were made, a new screen installed and new service signed up for that theater which will insure the patrons of the Star some really worth while pictures.

The management wishes to assure the people of La Grande that the Star will be run as a first-class show house and a place where anyone in the family will always feel at liberty of going.

The pictures will change on Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Vaudeville will be shown Sunday, Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Those who have been following the Iron Claw serial will welcome the news that this great serial will be finished now. Two chapters will be run at a time. On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week chapters 14 and 15 will be shown together with a two-reel comedy, on the next week two more chapters will be shown and so on until the serial is finished. When the Iron Claw is finished the Star will have something else good to store for its patrons.

On Sunday and Monday the picture will be William Russell in "High Play," and an act of vaudeville.

Union News Items

Union, Or., September 13.
The most beautiful wedding witnessed in Union for some time was that of Mr. Claude Busick and Miss Edna Davis, which took place last evening at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis.

Just preceding the ceremony Miss Florence Cooke, of Ellensburg, Wn., sang "Let Me Love Thee," by Aditi, and "O Promise Me," by De Koven. To strains of the "Bridal March" from Lohengrin, played by Miss Alice Hall, the bridal party descended the vine-encased stairway and the beautifully simple ring service was read by Rev. H. E. Cullison, of the M. E. Church. The bride couple stood under a bower of pink roses and were attended by Miss Eleanor Hall, as maid of honor, and Mr. Merton Davis, brother of the bride, as best man. The wedding gown was of white brocaded taffeta and net, and the maline veil was caught up with daisies. The maid of honor wore a gown of white satin and chiffon trimmed with pearls.

After the ceremony, a three-course luncheon was served, the color scheme being entirely in pink and white. The Misses Marian Phy, Elizabeth Eaton and Alice Hall, assisted with the serving. Miss Eleanor Hall caught the bride's bouquet and Mr. Merton Davis got the ring from the bride's cake.

The couple motored to La Grande where they took the midnight train for Portland. They will be at home to their friends in Union after October first.

The groom is one of Union's rising young business men, a few months ago having purchased the Union branch of the Levy-Vogel Drug Company. The bride's father is a prominent rancher and land owner in Union County.

The guests were as follows: Mesdames Cora B. Busick, C. E. Davis, Arthur Busick, Ida Couper, of Weiser, Ida; Merrill Couper, of Weiser, Ida; G. F. Hall, A. B. Davis, Messrs. C. E. Davis, Elwyn Davis, Richard Davis, Arthur Busick, G. F. Hall, A. B. Davis; Misses Irene Busick, Margaret Busick, Dorothy Busick, Lois Busick, Eunice Busick, Alpha Busick, Jean Couper, of Weiser, Ida; Eleanor Davis, Florence Cooke, of Ellensburg, Wash.; Alice Hall, Marion Phy, Elizabeth Eaton and Masters Bruce and Walter Davis, Harold and Robert Busick.

Union, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The Union schools opened on Monday morning with a total enrollment of 227 pupils, showing a decrease of 12 from last year's enrollment of the first day. It is expected that about 50 more will enter as soon as harvesting is over.

There are three new teachers in the corps this year, Miss Gertrude Nicholson in the grades, and Miss May Neil, as English instructor, and Miss Muriel McHenry as commercial instructor.

The Union schools are starting off with their usual vim and everything points to a harmonious year.

On Friday of last week the people of the town gave a farewell reception at the W. T. Wright home in honor of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Cullison. There is much regret about losing the Cullisons.

Mrs. Minnie A. Baird, Department President of the W. R. C., and Mrs. Cora M. Davis, Department Secretary, W. R. C., motored to La Grande today on business for that order.

Messrs. Merton and Elwyn Davis, and the Misses Eleanor Hall and Florence Cooke, of Ellensburg, motored to La Grande last evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Busick, who are leaving on their honeymoon.

The Epworth League has scheduled a party on next Friday night for the High School students, also as a welcome to the new minister, Clyde Walker.

Mrs. E. H. Miles who is at Hot Lake, following a very serious operation is reported to be doing nicely and on the rapid road to recovery.
