

Fire Sale?

NO!

This is not a fire sale, but a water sale. The only rain we have had this Summer all came through the roof and damaged about 20 boxes of soap, and while it lasts we are going to sell it for 5 cents instead of four for 25 cents. The soap is all right, but the labels are damaged. You had better order a supply now as this is below cost.

Peaches are very hard to get and we advise you to place your order at once.

Mrs. I. F. Stewart and children of Nampa were overnight visitors here Monday night, going on to Walla Walla this morning.

Mrs. H. Davis of Pleasant Valley came down Monday morning on No. 17 to visit for a few days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray of Cove went to Freewater Monday morning to visit Mrs. Gray's brother George Jasper.

A very pretty wedding took place Saturday evening at 8:15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strom, 2205 Cedar St. when Paul Norseth and Miss Marie Magnusson were married by the Rev. F. W. Bussard of the Lutheran Church. The bride wore a beautiful creation of blue tulle and wore pink roses. The couple was attended by Miss Johanna Narum as bridesmaid and Ole Reitan as best man. Red Carnations were used in the living room where the ceremony took place, and pale pink asters adorned the dining room.

After the ceremony a delicious three course luncheon was served. The couple left the same night on No. 5 for Bend, Oregon where Mr. Norseth is employed in the mills.

Those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. N. Nelson and daughter Genevieve and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen, Mrs. Chas. Strom and son Eldon, Mrs. Wm. Moore, Ole Reitan and daughter Margaret, the Misses Elizabeth Swanson and Johanna Narum, and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stitzinger.

The couple are well known here the groom having been employed until three months ago at the Palmer Mill, and the bride having made her home here since her arrival from Norway three years ago last Spring. Their many friends here join to wish them great happiness in their new life.

Never Bothered Since.
After suffering with terrible pains in his back and around his kidneys for eight years, and after having tried several doctors and different medicines, Alvis Souers, Ade, Ind., writes: "Foley's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and the first bottle removed the pain. After taking three bottles the bloating was all gone and his never bothered me since." When relief can be had so quickly why not banish backache, rheumatic pains, stiff and swollen joints caused by disordered kidneys? Sold everywhere.—Adv.

AMERICAN FIGHTERS ARE GOOD SPENDERS SAY FRENCH

By W. S. FORREST.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Aug. 28.—(By mail).—France is beginning to believe that money grows on trees in the United States. The Army and Navy had several pay days. Shiny American gold pieces have rapidly found their way into bank tills in exchange for French coin of the realm and the latter has been lavishly distributed in typical American fashion.

The French poulu looks with envy on his American fellow-fighter. The Poulu receives four cents a day for being a Poulu. The British Tommy gets 24 cents a day. The American sold for gets about 70 cents a day. And he spends it.

Paris newspapers never cease to wonder at the spending American fighters. One told how common, ordinary stokers off one of Uncle Sam's battleships came to Paris and cashed big letters of credit at Paris banks. Another detailed how an American Jackie bought a dozen bottle of champagne just because it was so cheap in France.

Paris hotelkeepers have ceased to be surprised when an American soldier or sailor orders an expensive room. Theater ticket offices sell high priced seats to an American fighter without a murmur. Restaurant waiters are not surprised when they are told "just keep the change."

So marked has become the American money spending menace that the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. which is a self-appointed guardian over our fighters' pocketbook and morals, has placarded the following "don'ts" and "when-evers."

"Don't engage rooms in any hotel without first asking the price including light and service. And don't think that your bath is gratis. Don't order a meal in a restaurant without first consulting the menu and see that the prices are plainly written—otherwise you may be surprised when you get your bill.

"Don't omit to count your change. "Don't give all your spare change to the waiter. He doesn't expect more than 10 per cent of the bill up to 50 francs and then 5 per cent after that.

"Don't accept outside rates in exchange for pounds and dollars. Go to a bank where you will get the right and lawful exchange.

"Don't ask advice from strangers. Go to people in authority or recognized associations of your own country.

"Whenever you go into a shop to buy anything—always ask the price first.

"Whenever you order a drink notice that the price is marked on the saucer upon which it is served."

Safe Remedy For Children.
Every parent is, or should be, careful in giving medicine to children. Chas. Baker, Brownville, Tex., writes: "For some years past I have used Foley's Honey and Tar and have found it especially efficient for bad coughs of my children. I always recommend it to my friends as a safe remedy for children as it contains no opiates. My wife would not think of using any other kind of cough medicine as it is certain to bring quick and lasting relief." It checks croup. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
