A Valuable Health Hint.

If the bowels are not working regularly, undigested food in the stomach may set up a condition of auto-intoxication and pollute the whole system with poisons in the blood stream. Foley Cathartic Tablets keep the bowels open and regular, the liver active and the stomach sweet. They cause no pain, nausea nor griping. They relieve indigestion, sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath or other conditions caused by clogged bowels. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

News Of La Grande

New Taxi Service Operating—Clifford George has started a new taxi service at the Sommer Hotel and is running two cars.

Celebrates Birthday—Virgil Conley of Cove entertained ten of his little friends Sunday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conley.

at eight o'clock, in honor of his fifth birthday. Those present were Mack Rees, Deen and Dell Puckett, Beryl Conley, Iola Childers, Delda Gray, Richard and Gilbert Miller, Vic Eyre, Merrell and Virgil Conley.

Buckley Improving—M. J. Buckley, Gen. Supt. of the O. W. at Portland, who has been quite ill at Kanosha, Wis., is greatly improving and expects to return before long, according to a letter received last week.

Recovers From Illness—Fred Schilke, Trav. Engr. of the O. W. has recovered from his recent illness and is around again.

Returns to Pendleton—Mrs. R. Wisler of Pendleton returned to her home in Pendleton after a visit of two months in the east. She stopped here over night with her daughters, Mrs. Gale Sturdivant and Mrs. Earl Doane.

Returns to Echo—Mr. and Mrs. J. Schmitz and son of Echo returned home yesterday after spending the week-end here with the S. M. Armstrong family.

Will Attend Whitman College—Mrs. Frank Conley and daughter Vina and son Virgil of Cove went to Walla Walla Monday morning to make arrangements for Miss Vina to enter Whitman College soon.

Takes up Dental Work Here—Dr. Verne Johnson and family formerly of Portland and San Francisco, drove overland from Canyon City Thursday and have rented the McKennon house on 3rd Street near Adams Ave. Dr. Johnson will be associated with Dr. Brownson over Lilly's Hardware Store. Dr. Brownson has renovated his office making two operating rooms instead of one, and making an altogether pleasant office.

Returns From Trip—Mrs. L. F. Dunn returned Sunday morning after spending six weeks at Portland, Seattle and other points on the coast.

Returns From Vacation—Anna Emmons returned to the soda fountain at Levy Vogel's yesterday after a week's vacation in Union.

Will Study Music—Miss Besse Lantz of Cove went to Walla Walla where she will take a course in music in the Whitman conservatory.

Here on Visit—Mrs. Olaf Hendrickson of Lostine came over Sunday to visit her sister-in-law Miss Johanna Narum and other friends for a few days. Her sister, Mrs. O. Knutson who has been visiting her brother Carl Knutson at Pleasant Valley, arrived on No. 17 yesterday morning and will visit here a few days before returning to her home in Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Will Spend Week in Pendleton—Mrs. F. E. Bristow and children of Cove went to Pendleton Monday morning to spend a week with relatives.

Leave For Pendleton—Mrs. R. E. Taylor and children went to Pendleton Monday morning for a two week's visit with friends.

All Churches Hear Rev. Clark's Last Sermon—Sunday night the pastors of the Methodist, Episcopal, Baptist and Christian churches, dismissed church after their congregations had been assembled, and all went to the Presbyterian church to hear Rev. Clark's last sermon before he leaves. It was a complete surprise to both Rev. Clark and the Presbyterian congregation. Inspired by the increased attendance Rev. Clark gave a splendid sermon which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Rev. Edwards to Leave La Grande—Rev. C. A. Edwards of the Methodist church announced Sunday to his congregation that he had been transferred from La Grande, probably to some city in Oregon, and that next Sunday would probably be his last Sunday in the pulpit here.

This news will be received with general regret as Mr. Edwards has made many friends here.

Gasoline on the Road—The end of the gasoline shortage that has struck La Grande within the last few days is in sight, according to J. M. Ohl, manager of the Standard Oil plant here, who states that 20,000 gallons are on the way from Portland and will be here in a few days. As there is no gasoline in town with the exception of a few private supplies, many car owners will probably have to walk for the next few days.

"Wonderfully Satisfactory"

STEARNS-KNIGHT

American Automobile Co.
Tacoma

"results secured in the hundreds of Stearns-Knight sold by us have been wonderfully satisfactory."

CHEVROLET

W. S. Dalmage Motor Co.
Seattle

"we are finding Zerolene a very efficient lubricant."

CADILLAC

Western Auto Sales Co.
Reno

"we consider Zerolene particularly adapted for use in high speed 'V' type motors."

MAXWELL

Lord Motor Car Co.
Los Angeles

"have used Zerolene in Maxwell cars for over three years with excellent results."

For tractor, Zerolene Heavy-Duty is especially recommended.

Endorsed by Leading Car Distributors

—because the records of their service departments show that Zerolene, correctly refined from California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication—less wear, more power, least carbon deposit.
