Miss Napoleon Has Arrived

FIELD gray velours is the material used for this swagger topcoat cut and stitched with so much dash. Military cape collar, huge bone buttons, bell sleeves and patch pockets all manage to present distinctive touches. Carrying out the military idea is a Napoleonic hat of gray felt, strapped across the front with a breast of gray feathers.

Pumpkin shapes will be the thing in new muffs, spool muffs, with a contrasting band of fur to hold them in around the middle, bolster muffs and the melon shapes also. Children have a new muff style waiting for them. It's a canteen muff with a leather strap for slinging it around the shoulders. This strap idea is good, because it guards against loss without offending the youngster's dignity.

Stronger than ever will be the vogue for the beaded chiffons and lightweight materials. Silk and chenille will also be used in the ornamentation of the fabrics, the designs of which will be strongly influenced by the Japanese and the Chinese.

Shedding Letters.
I'm a worker most active, most useful, most known.
Of all that are busy in country and town.
Take from me one letter and yet my good name.
In spite of this loss will continue the same.
Take from the two letters and still you will see
That precisely the same in effect I shall be.
Take from me three letters, or even take four.
Yet still I continue the same as before.
Answer—The postman.
