ARCADE

MARGUERITE CLARK, AT THE ARCADE.

Dainty demure Marguerite Clark in bloomers and sweaters, valiantly using boxing gloves, and knocking out a girl about twice her size; Marguerite Clark in correct masculine evening attire, knocking down a six foot bully of a man; and Marguerite Clark standing on tiptoes on a crossbar of a gymnasium kissing a young English lord;—these are a few of the new Marguerites we are introduced to in her latest Famous Players-Paramount picture, "The Amazons," which is coming to the Arcade Theatre on Monday and Tuesday.

Will Be Repaid for Their Work
Women everywhere suffer from kidney trouble—backache, rheumatic pains, swollen and tender muscles, stiff joints—and it is to help those who suffer as she did that Mrs. C. J. Ellis, 505 8th Ave., Sioux Falls, S. D., writes: "I feel sure if any one bothered as I was will give Foley Kidney Pills a fair trial they will be repaid for their work. It seems foolish to neglect an ailment when there is such a remedy to be had." They correct bladder disturbances, too. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

BEAUTIFUL MARIE DORO IN CHARMING PICTURE

Marie Doro will appear Sunday only at the Arcade Theatre in "Heart's Desire," a Famous Players production prepared for her by Eve Unsell and released by Paramount.

In "Castles for Two," Miss Doro played the role of a wealthy American heiress whose desire for real affection other than that based on love of her money led her to disguise herself as a servant in her own house and win the love of an Irish peer. In "Heart's Desire" she takes a part quite as charming, although entirely different and forming a striking contrast to her former role. She is seen as dainty little "Fleurette" who most resembles the flowers of the little island on which she lives.

The coming of the new proprietor to the little island brings distress and misery to many of Fleurette's friends but she herself continues her smiling way through life, bringing happiness wherever she goes. Even when everything seems tumbling about her ears, the new proprietor demanding more rent, her pet cow killed and other worries piling ahead, she keeps up her courage and it is not long before she is trying to pass some of her happiness along to the grouchy old proprietor by taking him a little rose bush from her garden "Heart's Desire" as it was known to the islanders.

The proprietor, thinking her a burglar, shoots at her and wounds her arm, causing much anxiety to his young nephew Paul, a physician who takes charge of the girl. Her recovery progresses rapidly until Helene, former fiancee of Paul, who had jilted him for his lack of money, comes to visit the charming old place.

Helene, in a reckless fit of jealousy tells the younger girl that she and Paul are still engaged, to the great dismay of Fleurette who is just beginning to realize her love for Paul and to understand the unspoken messages which he, half laughingly, had placed

She leaves the house, however, and the way she comes back to it just in time to save the lives of Paul and his mother from the furious crowd of villagers who were revolting at oppression met as a thrilling climax to this unusual picture which abounds in touches of humor and charm that only Marie Doro ever best can put into a picture.

This production, was directed by Francis J. Grando, was given able support by a cast including such well-known actors as Albert Roscoe, Mario Majeroni, Gertrude Norman and Harry Lee.

"Lovey Mary" Appears as Innocent Little Girl Who Is Adopted for Spite by Rich Woman.

A pretty little girl with wonderful wide appealing eyes, a wealth of tawny hair, the happy smile of innocence and the delightful mannerisms of tyro maidenhood, is the central figure in a new life drama that is certain to appeal alike to old and young.

"Annie for Spite," a new American Mutual photodrama featuring that fascinating little actress, Mary Miles Minter, is one of the cleverest hits of Peruna eases the burden of the housekeeper by keeping away the danger of illness resulting from colds, coughs, and indigestion due to catarrhal condition. It speedily relieves and overcomes these.

PERUNA Household Helper

Its tonic properties build up the strength of the physically weak and run down, and its use in convalescence, especially after grip, is remarkably beneficial.

KEEP IT ON HAND

The wise housekeeper has Peruna on hand for instant use even if catarrhal troubles do not call for its regular administration. A dose or two in time often prevents a long illness.

Liquid or tablet form. Manakin Tablets are a splendid laxative for home use. Ask the druggist.

WE ASK YOU TO COMPARE MODART CORSETS Front Laced WITH ANY OTHER CORSETS

We ask you to compare for—quality. We ask you to compare for—lines. We ask you to compare for—workmanship.

And when you have given it a thorough, impartial test by wearing it—we will leave it to your judgment whether or not there is any other front laced corset in the Modart class. We chose to specialize on the Modart Front Laced Corset, to feature it in our advertising, to recommend it to our customers—only after a thorough study and search of the corset field. And only after we were convinced that no other front laced corsets compared with Modart in quality and fine fitting features, did we choose them.

Our expert, scientific corset fitting vice always at your free disposal
