HAND BILL TELLS OF PICNIC TWENTY YEARS AGO

R. A. Masterton, of 1516 North Spruce street, has an interesting handbill of a picnic held 20 years ago, on September 25 and 26, 1897, under the management of the Hon. P. E. Van Buren, the father of Jay Van Buren. No doubt many living now in La Grande or vicinity attended the picnic, and others will be interested in reading the program, so we reproduce its text herewith:

extra cost to get plenty to eat. Have you ever read that empty sacks do not stand up?

It is also necessary for the working man to have the necessary clothing to protect him from the rain and cold when working out doors to protect his health.

If it is necessary to cut down, commence with style, delicacies and amusements. Just these particular points keep the workingmen's noses down to the grindstone, especially if they are married to inexperienced cooks, who devote the principal part of their time around millinery stores, amusement places, and keeping the practice of showing off above the husband's income which is a step to the divorce evil. Still married life is preferred and necessary.

SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILDREN.

Every parent is, or should be, careful in giving medicine to children. Chas. Baker, Brownsville, Tex., writes: "For some years past I have used Foley's Honey and Tar and have found it especially efficient for bad coughs of my children. I always recommend it to my friends as a safe remedy for children as it contains no opiates. My wife would not think of using any other kind of a cough medicine as it is certain to bring quick and lasting relief." It checks croup. Sold everywhere.—Adv. eod.
