SUMMERVILLE ITEMS.

Summerville, Ore., Oct. 1.—(Special).—Miss Marie Becker, who has been in training as nurse at Spokane, Wash., has come home to rest up for a while.

The Red Cross is doing a great deal of work here as well as at other places. It is a very common sight now to see a lady with her knitting. On the 26th inst. the ladies belonging to the Red Cross Society of this place entertained the members and others who could come from Imbler and the surrounding community. A helpful and profitable time was reported.

The annual convention of the Rebekah's was held at this place on the 26th inst. It was well attended—over 100 having been in attendance.

The president, Mrs. Lankester, gave some good talks. She is of a strong and striking personality and impresses one very favorably, indeed. The Crystal Rebekah Lodge of La Grande kindly put on the degree work and it was certainly done most creditably and beautifully. This was followed by several splendid readings and songs and a bonnet drill. The latter being amusing in the extreme. Then came the banquet to which all were glad to do justice.

Several homes and places of business are now supplied with electric lights in our little town.

It is reported that the telephone lines will soon all be in repair.

The recent rain has done a great deal of good to the farmers.

Miss Thelma Choate was down from La Grande to spend the week-end with her father and grandmother. Miss Juanita Choate is still quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murchison were at the Fair in Enterprise, also visiting with the latter's brother, Tom Bunnell, while there.

Mrs. Lee Fine and her two young daughters, who have been friends in La Grande, arrived here last Saturday, guests of their aunt, Miss Lydia M. Hug. Mr. Fine will follow as soon as the busy season is over near Echo, Oregon, where they have a 320-acre homestead. They intend to remain on this side of the mountains for an indefinite length of time.

Threshing is nearing the end pretty fast now.

John Schleppey says he has some of the biggest squashes you "never" saw.

Miss Eva Royes and a lady friend of her's are here from Akron, Ohio, visiting at the home of the former's brother, Mike Royes.

Miss Mabel Hug of Pumpkin Ridge, has been staying with her aunt, Miss Lydia M. Hug and at times assisting at the switch board.

"Billy" Choate is now the happy possessor of a Chalmers car.

Dillard Choate is having a fine barn built on his farm northwest of town.

Fat cattle are easily disposed of at this time of the year and at a pretty fair price.

COVE ITEMS.

Cove, Oct. 2.—(Special).—The Valley View Flour Mill, commenced grinding wheat the first of this week. They have everything now in first-class condition.

The members of the Red Cross met at the Library last week, Thursday, and finished all the work on hand under the direction of Mrs. Hugh McCall. A large box of finished articles were sent to headquarters September 21, consisting of: Two hundred and twenty-two nightgowns, 1 blanket, 2 fracture pillows, 1 pair wristers, 4 pair socks, 61 cup covers, 58 sponges, 1 large bunch hand cloths, 1 bunch gun rags, 38 wash cloths, 66 dust cloths, 93 handkerchiefs, 5 bed socks, 8 towels, 23 dish towels, 1 housewife, also 40 hanks of yarn for knitting has been received and distributed among the knitters to be shaped into socks, wristers, helmets and scarfs. Tatting and crocheting are now things of the past and knitting needles are fast taking their place.

The Parent-Teachers' Association held a reception Thursday evening in the High school study hall in honor of the new teachers. A large gathering was present. The welcoming address was delivered by the chairman of the School Board, Mr. A. A. Antles, and responded to by the eighth grade teacher, Miss Beckwith. A vocal selection by Mrs. E. W. Pease accompanied by Mr. Le Roy Lay on the piano and Miss May Stearns on the violin and an address on the "Relation of the Parent to the Child" by the Rev. E. O. Otto, concluded the program, after which refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed. The date for the next meeting of the association will be October 25. All parents are cordially invited.

Mrs. F. E. McCall, of La Grande, is visiting at the home of her son Hugh McCall, for a few days.

Miss Emily Allen has been visiting in Hog Valley, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, returning home Wednesday.

A surprise party was tendered Philip Conklin Tuesday evening by 20 of his friends.

Mrs. Hal Rees of La Grande visited friends in Cove this week.

Miss U. M. Carter who has been visiting at the home of Miss Hugh McCall for the past two months, left for Boise, Idaho, Saturday.

Miss Fay Pratt left for Salean Thursday where she will attend the Willamette University this year.

The recent rain has done much toward brightening up the hillsides and made it possible to commence fall plowing.

Mrs. E. O. Otto returned home Thursday from Colorado, where she has been visiting her parents since the middle of August.

Albert Brazill and Bill Hallmark attended the Pendleton Round-Up.

Mrs. F. A. Galloway entertained her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Austin, of Boise, Idaho, the forepart of the week.

Mrs. B. E. Anderson left last week for an extended visit in the East. She will visit first with her son Wm. Beckwith in Tulsa, Okla., from there she will go to her son Carl Landers, who is stationed at Camp Green, N. C., and will spend the remainder of the Winter with her sister in Kansas.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Karl Peterson, September 28, a 9-pound boy. Both mother and son are doing nicely.

Miss Ella Sutherland has gone to Seattle, Wash., to live with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dougherty, and has entered the Washington University where she will take up the regular course of work.

Miss Ida Roberts is teaching in the High Valley school this year.

Anderson Brothers have purchased the La Grande Cornice Works, consisting of sheet metal and plumbing. One of the brothers will go to La Grande soon to take charge of the business there.

Tom Harris has returned from Yakima, Wash., where he has been working during the Summer.

Mrs. R. V. Ego, who has been visiting her son Charles Ego, has returned home bringing her two grandsons with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnard, of Canyon City, Or., are visiting Mr. Barnard's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Adkins.

Charles Williams has been called to Jefferson, Wis., by the serious illness of his brother Paul, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Pearl Blank. Mr. Williams will probably remain there about a month.

Mrs. C. H. Elliott, of Richland, Or., is visiting her brother F. A. Galloway, for a few days.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Powell have just returned from Boise, Idaho, where they attended the eighth Provincial Synod of the Pacific Coast. They stopped over at Vale and Ontario on their way home.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. McCown left for Portland last week. From a late report the doctor has received a call to go Tuesday, but did not state his destination. Mrs. McCown will remain in Portland for the present.

Dr. Oftedahl, of Portland, who takes Dr. McCown's place here in the practice of medicine, has rented the house owned by Mr. Thorsen. Mrs. Oftedahl arrived here Friday evening.

Married at Walla Walla, Wednesday, September 19, Mr. Everett Meiners to Miss Lillian Sutherland, of Cove. Miss Sutherland graduated as a nurse the day before her marriage. The bride and groom motored over to Cove, where they visited at the home of the bride's father, L. D. Sutherland. Mr. Meiners owns a large wheat ranch near Walla Walla where the bride and groom will take up their residence.

MAY CHANGE ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS OF SCHOOL.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 2.—Although at present sea experience is required of applicants to the government's free nautical schools, those in touch with the matter here today predicted that the entrance requirements would be modified and that a large number of men, who had a little sea experience, would be admitted.

This action is forecasted by the calling of a conference at Boston for the middle of October of men in charge of the various district schools. The conference has been called by Henry Howard, director of recruiting and W. J. Grambs, district chief for the schools in Washington and Oregon, will attend.

In a letter to Inspector of Hulls Edwards, who has charge of examining applicants for admission to the Portland and Astoria schools, Grambs declares that the purpose of the conference is to take up matters relative to stimulating enrollment.

SHIPPING STOCK TO EASTER NPASTURES.

Missoula, Mont., Oct. 2.—Montana sheepmen are getting rid of their flocks as rapidly as possible, according to R. J. Dee, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Northern Pacific. Dee just completed a trip through the Montana sheep districts. Hay is $80 a ton in some parts of Montana, he said. Many flockmasters are shipping their sheep to Eastern states to feed during the Winter. A severe Winter is forecasted.

NOTICE OF IMPOUNDED ANIMAL.

Notice is hereby given to all concerned that the Chief of Police of the City of La Grande, Oregon, has taken up, running at large within said City and unattended and placed in the City Pound, one "flee bitten grey" gelding about 12 years old, weighing about 1400 pounds and having no brands visible and the owner being unknown, and that said animal may be reclaimed by the owner or person entitled thereto, paying to said Chief of Police within ten days from the date of this notice the fees and charges for taking up, posting and keeping said animal.
