CARLYLE BLACKWELL AND JUNE ELVIDGE AT ARCADE

Of all the remarkable situation ever shown in motion pictures some of the most remarkable are seen in "The Social Leper," the new World Picture Brady-Made, which comes to the Arcade Theatre today only, with the drama is enthralling and inter-Carlyle Blackwell and June Elvidge ending from start to finish.

in the principal roles and with Arthur Ashley and Evelyn Greeley in the cast. These situations show the great lengths gone to by a desperate woman who seeks to ensnare a man with whom she has become infatuated. She almost succeeds and then a man she has turned down, turns on her and kills her. This killing results in an innocent man being held for murder, but finally everything comes out happily for this man and for his sweetheart. Needless to say the drama is enthralling and interesting from start to finish.
