FANNIE WARD IN UNIQUE.

In one of the most unique and thrilling photodramas in which she has ever appeared since the famous production of "The Cheat," Fannie Ward will be seen at the Arcade Theatre today and tomorrow in the Lasky Paramount production of "The Crystal Gazer," a picturization by Marian Fairfax of Eve Unsell and Edna Riley's gripping story.

In this production Miss Ward has three unusual roles—in that she plays the mother and her two daughters,

This would be a most trying and confusing task for the average artiste, but Miss Ward with her wonderful knowledge of dramatic art and her usual cleverness, gives each a distinct and separate characterization which leaves no confusion in the minds of the audience.

"The Crystal Gazer" has to do with Rose and Norma Jorgenson. Their mother, living in a poverty stricken tenement, commits suicide and Rose is adopted by Judge and Mrs. Keith, while Norma is taken over by Mrs. Dugan, a woman of the tenements. From then on they are known under their adopted names. Rose becomes a social favorite, but Norma falls into the clutches of Calistro, a charlatan hypnotist. Under his guidance she becomes an hypnotic subject and Calistro is taken up by fashionable society. At a social entertainment Calistro notices the resemblance between Rose and Norma. The girls do not know each other and Calistro secures information to prove that they are both daughters of a condemned murderer. With this he confronts Rose, and she, realizing her position, breaks her engagement with Dick Alden a young millionaire, and flees to Bermuda. Dick, on account of the resemblance, is filled with pity for Norma, and begins to make love to her. How Rose returns and affairs are finally straightened out, is brought about in a most unusual and gripping manner. The cast supporting Miss Ward is one of unusual excellence and includes Jack Dean, Harrison Ford, Winifred Greenwood, Raymond Hatton, Edythe Chapman and Jane Wolff.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirsstein, Greenville, Ills., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."—Adv.

WE ASK YOU TO COMPARE MODART CORSETS Front Laced WITH ANY OTHER CORSETS

We ask you to compare for—quality. We ask you to compare for—lines. We ask you to compare for—workmanship.

And when you have given it a thorough, impartial test by wearing it—we will leave it to your judgment whether or not there is any other front laced corset in the Modart class. We chose to specialize on the Modart Front Laced Corset, to feature it in our advertising, to recommend it to our customers—only after a thorough study and search of the corset field. And only after we were convinced that no other front laced corsets compared with Modart in quality and fine fitting features, did we choose them.

Our expert, scientific corset fitting service always at your free disposal
