

HOME-MADE MEDICINES

Many families still depend upon the old, reliable home-made herbal remedies for the curing of some ailments.

We should like to furnish the herbs for such remedies. We have every root, bark, leaf and berry ever called for and guarantee them to be fresh and of full-strength.

The compounding of Family Recipes is a specialty with us and when entrusted with such work we can assure you of both satisfactory results and reasonable prices.

MEETING OF WOMEN

SATURDAY AT Y. M. C. A.

We urge all women of the city to meet at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday between 3 and 4 p. m. to take advantage of the opportunity to learn how to cut the high cost of living and the cost of high living. The meeting will be for the purpose of forming a Home Co-operators Study Class under the direction of the District Home Demonstration Food Agent and the La Grande Food Preparedness committee. Miss Inez Knowles, student at O. A. C., Miss Dorothy Wright, graduate of O. A. C. and High school teacher, and Miss Ethel Wright, graduate of O. A. C., will conduct the classes. It is a patriotic duty to attend the meeting and learn how women can help win the war. Everything is free—no expenses. 10-5-1t.
